Accused Killer Returned

. . . KRIDER SHOWS NO EMOTION

By GERRY SWITZER
Star Staff Writer

Paul Henry Krider, charged with two counts of murder in the strangulation-slaying of 78-year-old Emma Tychsen, was brought back to Lincoln Friday from Phoenix, Ariz., where he was arrested Wednesday night.

Accompanied by Lancaster County Sheriff Merle Karnopp, County Atty. Paul Douglas and Lincoln Police Capt. Robert Sawdon, Krider stepped from the plane, showing no emotion. He was led in handcuffs to the awaiting sheriff's car by Karnopp.

Douglas said the 35-year-old former farmhand would be arraigned in Lancaster County Court as soon as the services of a court-appointed attorney are retained.

Wanted No Lawyer

He said Krider specifically indicated several times after his arrest in Phoenix that he didn't want the services of a lawyer during questioning there.

Douglas said Krider admitted his involvement in the murder of the rural Walton woman July 13 in a written statement which he acknowledged by making corrections and initialing each page.

However, Douglas said the defendant didn't sign the last page of the statement because "he said he didn't want to sign it."

Sheriff Karnopp said Krider offered no resistance during his arrest in downtown Phoenix Wednesday night.

He said they located him by displaying "wanted" fliers in Phoenix bars. He was identified as patronizing one of the bars every night about 5:30 p.m. Karnopp said.

Spotted With Friends

However, Krider didn't make his routine bar visit Wednesday night, but was arrested about 10:15 p.m. by a Phoenix officer, Sawdon and Karnopp who spotted him in the back of a car with two of his friends.

Upon stopping the car, the officers asked Krider who he was and he answered without hesitance, "Paul Krider," Karnopp said.

Karnopp said they had learned where Krider was staying through various leads from the defendant's friends, and also had found he had been working in upholstering shops since his arrival in Phoenix.

A letter with a Phoenix postmark, which had been sent to Otoe County by Krider seeking a duplicate title for his 1953 pickup truck led to knowledge of his whereabouts.

Took $40

Douglas said that Krider apparently drove directly from Lincoln to Phoenix after the crime. He said the defendant, who had been working as a farmhand in the Walton vicinity, admitted taking $40 from the victim.

The body of the woman was found in her ransacked home July 14.

Krider is specifically charged with first degree murder and murder in the perpetration of a burglary.

He was booked in to City Jail until arraignment, after which he will be transferred to the State Penitentiary for safekeeping, according to Karnopp.

PINNEY . . . at 2 jobs.

Rancher Switching Careers At Age 39

Combines and complicated electrical circuits may not have much in common, but both are playing key roles in the life of a Crawford rancher who is switching careers at 39 years of age.

Gordon Pinney used the profits from his custom combining operations to help finance a degree in electrical engineering which he received from the University of Nebraska Friday evening.

Later this month he will begin testing rocket engines for the Rocketdyne Co., a division of North American Aviation at Canoga Park, Calif. He will be involved in testing engines for space vehicles.

Uncertainty

The decision to change careers at this stage in life was based on his uncertainty in agriculture and the need to provide an education for his children in the years ahead.

Although Pinney didn't find it easy to return to school, he does not regret the decision and would like to obtain an advanced degree.

Pinney's college education actually began in 1942 when he enrolled in aeronautical engineering at Iowa State. He served in World War II and received a back injury as a prisoner of war.

After the war he returned to the 2,400-acre ranch north of Crawford operated by his father, Ralph Pinney. Following his father's death, the family formed the Sioux Livestock Co. composed of Pinney, his mother, Mrs. Bess Pinney of Crawford, and a sister, Marion, Mrs. Charles Shumway of Chadron.

The ranch was homesteaded by his grandfather, who migrated from Vermont in the 1880's. At the time of the financial crash in 1929, the family ran 10,000 head of cattle on the homestead and leased land. After the financial crisis, the family operations were reduced to those on the original homestead.

Operated A Garage

Pinney's interest in engineering may stem from his father, who studied engineering two years at Stanford University prior to World War I. His father also operated a garage in Crawford in the early days of the automobile.

While studying electrical engineering, Pinney developed a fascination for the unknown. He is interested in testing and instrumentation. After attending college, he said, "You learn how little you really know." He received financial assistance through the State Vocational Rehabilitation Services.

In addition to keeping up his studies, Pinney participated in Eta Kappa Nu, electrical engineering honorary, Sigma Tau, all-engineering honorary, Institute for Electrical Engineers, and as co-chairman of E-Week. He is a Mason and member of the Community Church at Huskerville.

His wife has worked part-time and has been active in Girl Scout work. They have three children, Nancy Jo, 13; Ralph, 11; and Sidney, 2.

Prisoners Freed Just For Doings

Riverton, Wyo. (AP)—The annual Arapahoe Pow Wow is one of the big events on the nearby Wind River Indian Reservation and local officials have made sure everyone has a chance to join the celebrations.

Riverton police released nine Arapahoe prisoners from jail so they could take part in the tribal doings. They were ordered back to jail Monday to finish their sentences.

Solons All For Lyndon

. . . IN CRISIS

Washington (AP)—Both houses of Congress gave President Johnson a smashing vote of confidence Friday in the Viet Nam-Southeast Asia crisis.

By a 414-0 vote the House adopted a bipartisan resolution backing the President's actions as commander in chief, and the Senate followed with an 88-2 endorsement.

The opposition votes were cast by two Democrats, Sens. Wayne Morse of Oregon who has repeatedly denounced U.S. policies in Southeast Asia as a threat to world peace, and Ernest Gruening of Alaska.

Gruening told the Senate, "All Viet Nam is not worth the life of a single American boy."

LBJ Lauds Unity

Johnson hailed the action as "a demonstration to all the world of the unity of all Americans."

He made a statement expressing appreciation to members of both parties for "their patriotic, resolute and rapid action."

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the GOP presidential nominee, joined fellow Republicans in voting approval and support of Johnson's decision to strike back at Communist North Vietnamese attacks on U.S. warships in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The resolution—Morse said it gives Johnson "blanket authority to wage war—says:

"The Congress approves and supports the determination of the President, as commander in chief, to take all necessary measures to repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression."

Misgivings

Some members, including Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said they voted with misgivings to uphold the President.

While no negative votes were cast in the House, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., took a noncommital position by voting "present" and Rep. Eugene Siler, R-Ky., was announced as paired against the resolution. This meant in effect that if Siler had been present he would have voted "no" on the roll call.

Turkey Denies Jets Hit Cyprus Village

Nicosia, Cyprus (AP) — The Greek Cypriot government charged four Turkish air force Sabre jets attacked Polis village and hit an Italian ship there Friday, but Turkey firmly denied it today.

The Turkish government said its planes flew over the embattled eastern Mediterranean island Friday and would be back today for reconnaissance, but insisted no bullets were fired.

It said the island may be bombed by the Turks unless American-led efforts to find a solution for the Cyprus conflict are successful.

Greeks On Alert

In Athens Greek Defense ordered a general alert of Greek armed forces early today. Greek warships were reported steaming out of Crete, Rhodes and other bases.

The Greek Cypriot government here placed the whole island on a general state of two Greek Cypriot patrol

The new crisis developed at the climax of two days of renewed fighting between the Greek Cypriot majority and Turkish minority in the northwest and in the capital itself.

U.S. Effort

American involvement in efforts to avert war between Greece and Turkey — estranged partners in the North Atlantic Alliance — was emphasized in a Friday-Saturday cabinet meeting at Ankara, the Turkish capital.

Sitting with the cabinet was U.S. Ambassador Raymond Hare, and after the meeting Vice Premier Kema Satir said Hare had "promised to do everything in his power to try and ameliorate the tense situation in Cyprus."

From Salonika in northern Greece came reports that Greek ground forces had observed shifting and massing of Turkish soldiers across the border in Turkish Eastern Thrace.

The reported Turkish air attack was described by some authorities as apparent retaliation for a reported attack by tw Greek Cypriot patrol boats that fired about 70 rounds of 20 and 40 millimeter ammunition into the Turkish Cypriot village of Mansouta and Kokkina Friday.

The government of President Archbishop Makarios moved quickly to take charges of Turkish aggression to the United Nations Security Council.

Poverty Bill Saved From Quick Death

Washington (AP)— The House handed President Johnson a solid, major victory Friday night approving his high-priority anti-poverty bill, but a final vote was delayed until Saturday.

Opponents raised a technicality—demanding a specially printed copy of the bill—after administration forces had saved the bill from the brink of defeat and approved it by a 228-190 roll call vote.

That vote was on the bill as an amendment to the original measure brought before the House, which was changed to bring it into closer conformity with one passed earlier by the Senate.

All But Sealed

The delayed vote will be on its final passage as a bill, not an amendment. Friday night's vote, however, indicated a hard-won triumph for Johnson was all but sealed.

This result plus the leadership's success in quickly turning a 35-vote defeat into a 28-vote victory in an earlier test seemed to make the final roll call no more than a formality.

The Senate bill is identical in its essentials, and House leaders appear confident their version will be accepted promptly and hastened to the White House.

Nationwide Assault

The $947.5-million bill is designed to mount a nationwide attack on the sources of poverty that have kept generations of Americans on relief.

It would utilize a variety of programs, including conservation-type camps for idle youths, basic education and job-training, loans to help low-income farmers and shopkeepers, and community-wide anti-poverty projects.

The House adopted several amendments, including one by Rep. John Bell Williams, D-Miss., that would require youths entering the proposed Job Corps to take an oath of loyalty to the United States.

Tenacious GOP

House Republican leaders, sensing political gain for Johnson, fought it all the way and teamed with southern Democrats for a momentary victory that threw a scare into administration supporters.

Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., chairman of the House Rules Committee, launched the maneuver by offering a motion to strike the enacting clause and thus kill the measure.

On a teller vote, with only 305 members on hand, the Republicans and their conservative Southern Democratic allies turned out in force and carried the motion 170 to 135.

But the immediately following roll call vote brought out 117 more members—and put them all on record—and in this test the leaders won by 225 to 197.

3 Nebraska 'Nos'

Nebraska Republican Reps. Ralph Beermann, Glenn Cunningham and Dave Martin voted on the losing side in the roll call.

This enabled the House to proceed into the final stages of debate preparatory to the final vote on the bill which Johnson has placed at the top of his priority list for domestic legislation.

In the roll call vote on the motion to kill, 41 Democrats and 156 Republicans voted in favor while 206 Democrats were joined by 19 Republicans in defeating the motion.

On the night roll call, 208 Democrats and 20 Republicans voted for the amendment and 153 Republicans and 37 Democrats opposed it.

And Rep. Phil Landrum, Georgia Democrat who was floor manager for the bill, contended the enactment of the 1964 civil rights bill has made academic the question of use of federal funds in programs where racial discrimination is practiced. Such use is forbidden under the civil rights law.

Police To Watch Tree

Ottawa (AP)—Royal Canadian mounted police at government house have been asked to keep close watch over a red oak tree planted by the late President John F. Kennedy at the cost of a back injury on a visit here in May 1961. Although not advertised in tourist promotion, the tree has been losing leaves and strips of bark to souvenir takers.

Khanh Ready To Aid

. . . No. Viet Revolt

Saigon, Viet Nam (AP) — Virtual martial law gripped South Viet Nam Friday night by a decree of Premier Nguyen Khanh aimed at strengthening the fight against communism. Death was threatened for all terrorists and saboteurs, even black market speculators.

With the danger of an attack from the north evidently ebbing, Khanh proclaimed a state of emergency across a land where U.S. and South Vietnamese military forces have been in a state of alert all week.

Internal Matter

A U.S. embassy spokesman said Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor talked to Khanh before the decree was made public. The spokesman said it was not proper for the United States to comment on the decree because it was an internal matter, but if results included increased mobilization and helped in prosecution of the war, "then it would be all for the good."

The premier, a major general in his own armed forces, suspended normal legal processes. He banned strikes and demonstrations, imposed a domestic censorship and ordered a general mobilization of national resources and manpower.

A march-on-the-north advocate in the days before eruption of the Tonkin Gulf crisis, Khanh told a news conference:

"We are ready to extend assistance to the people of North Viet Nam to overthrow their Communist masters.

'Decisive Year'

"We said at the beginning of the year that this year would be decisive in our struggle with the Communists. Now we can say that the coming weeks will be decisive. . .

"I am going now to be with my troops."

Khanh clearly intended to try to convince his people—particularly cynical and indifferent Saigonese—that South Viet Nam, which has been fighting Red Viet Cong guerrillas for three years, is at war.

Just as clearly, he wanted to stem such distractions as political infighting, student demonstrations and sporadic wild rumors in the local press of prospective upheavals in his regime.

More Planes Due

At Da Nang, a tank-guarded base on the South China Sea 280 miles northeast of Saigon, Americans said they expected a further concentration of U.S. air power this weekend.

They said, however, this would be intended more as a show of force than as an indication of imminent combat.

North Viet Nam, still broadcasting hostile words, charged that U.S. military planes intruded into its air space again Friday, but were chased out by army antiaircraft fire. Radio Hanoi's account did not mention the number of planes, specify whether they were on reconnaissance or combat missions, or say whether any were hit.

Declaration

North Viet Nam's cabinet issued a declaration that "all provocations and aggressions against the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam will certainly be defeated by the strength of the entire Vietnamese people."

A U.S. spokesman in Saigon said there were no reports of substantial troop movements in North Viet Nam. Similarly, he said no evidence had been received to substantiate reports — previously discounted by U.S. intelligence sources in Hong Kong—of heavy troop movements in Red China's southern provinces.

Prince Edward Schools Doing An Unusual Thing

Farmville, Va. (AP)—Prince Edward County's public school officials are caught up in an unfamiliar ritual these days: They're registering pupils for the first time in five years.

The schools will reopen Sept. 8 in response to an order from the U.S. Supreme Court, but nearly every child who answers the summons of that first bell will be a Negro.

All but a handful of the county's 1,300 school-age white children are undergoing another and by now familiar registration, this one for the private, segregated schools set up to avoid classroom race-mixing.

For the first semester, at least, a part of their tuition will come from county grants.

For School Supt. T. J. McIlwaine, the impending reopening has meant a hasty search for teachers and attention to the multitude of details which largely had been let slide since June, 1959.

"We don't have all the forms processed yet, but an estimated 1,600 children have been enrolled," he said Thursday. "I'm not sure, but I believe that six or seven white children have enrolled."

Last year, seven white children attended the federally backed Prince Edward Free School Association schools.

The free schools, which have closed shop after one year, operated in four rented public school buildings. They provided the first formal education for most of the county's Negro children since the board of supervisors choked off school funds in the summer of 1959.

Prince Edward had been one of the counties involved in the Supreme Court's 1954 school desegregation decision. For five years the case remained in the Federal courts until the order came to desegregate in September 1959.

Instead, the supervisors cut off operating funds and Prince Edward became the nation's only locality to go out of the public school business instead of desegregating the classrooms.

How Good?

Now that public education is on the verge of returning, there are questions among many about how good it will be. McIlwaine himself has said he doesn't know whether the $189,000 appropriated by the supervisors will be sufficient to operate a high-level school system.

"The schools are not going to come anywhere near what the children have had the past year," said W. Lester Banks, executive secretary of the Virginia branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. "I think the size of the appropriation for the public schools gives a pretty good indication of just how good the schools will be."

Banks pointed out that while the supervisors had appropriated $189,000 for the public schools, it paid about $180,000 in tuition grants to the white children who will attend the private schools.

The county has estimated that the state will contribute slightly more than $200,000 to the public schools for the coming year. That would bring the total public school expenditure to about $400,000.

U.S. Wants Decision Soon On Rights Law

Washington (UPI) — The government said Friday it hopes to get a Supreme Court decision as early as possible on the first two constitutional challenges to the new civil rights law.

The Justice Department made the statement in a memorandum filed with the Supreme Court in opposition to motions by the Heart of Atlanta Motel and the Pickrick Restaurant to delay court-ordered desegregation.

The motel filed suit challenging the civil rights law's constitutionality within hours hours of the time President Johnson signed the act. Three Negroes filed suit against the Pickrick Restaurant after they were driven away from it by a mob, led by Lester G. Maddox, owner of the Pickrick.

Two Cases

The two cases were heard simultaneously by the U. S. District Court in Atlanta, which upheld the constitutionality of the law and ordered both establishments to desegregate.

The district court delayed the effective date of its decision until next Tuesday to give the restaurant and the motel time to appeal to the Supreme Court.

Attorneys for the two establishments asked the court to of the time President sion until all appeals had been decided.

The Justice Department opposed their request Friday.

Delay Request

Solicitor General Archibald Cox said the request for the delay should not be granted because there was no showing that desegregation would cause irreparable injury and because there was "no substantial likelihood" that the restaurant or the motel would win their case.

"While we have no doubt of the correctness of the decision of the district court, we agree that this court should rule upon the constitutionality . . . (of the law) as early as is cinsistent with fair process and mature deliberation," Cox said.

"The United States is prepared to cooperate in having the case heard . . . as early at the next term, beginning in October, as may be convenient to the court," Cox said. "Meanwhile, the motions for stays pending appeal should be denied."

Clouds, Rain Break Up Decade's Hottest Weather

By The Associated Press

Clouds and scattered thundershowers from the Gulf Coast to the Great Lakes Friday broke up the hottest weather Mid-Continent states have felt for a decade and more.

Temperatures that had ranged about 100 degrees for days dropped Friday morning into the mid-90s and—except for Texas where more of the same is in prospect—are forecast to be comparatively mild Saturday.

The Weather Bureau said a cold front was expected to run across Arkansas through Oklahoma into the Texas Panhandle.

Kansas Deluge

The rains were scattered and ranged from mere traces to a deluge of 4.5 inches at Lawrence, Kan.

Texas reported two heat deaths and Arkansas had one.

Several states reported severe drought conditions in their farming areas but city merchants were jubilant over booming sales of air conditioners and fans.

The heat wave hit its peak Thursday. Quanah, Tex., registered 116, only 4 degrees below the state's all-time high of 120 registered in 1936 at Seymour. Other sizzling tops were 114 at Henessey, Okla., and 113 at Hutchinson, Kan., and Wichita Falls, Tex. The last two were the highest readings for those cities since 1936. Shreveport challenged a much older record Wednesday with its top of 105, highest there since Aug. 5, 1881.

Power companies reported record usage of current and attributed it to air conditioning. In Chicago, Commonwealth Edison Co. hit a peak load of more than 6 million kilowatts. At Little Rock, Ark., Middle South Utilities, which serves Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana, reported a peak of 3.57 million kilowatts.

Des Moines reported a commentary on changing times. In earlier years heat waves sent scores of people to the open spaces of public buildings and parks on hot nights, but this year, despite hottest nights since the mid-'50s, the people stayed indoors. Council Bluffs, Iowa, had a 107 reading Sunday, its hottest since 1956.

Sales of cooling appliances were booming everywhere. A major distribution center in Chicago ran out of fans and air conditioners. Wichita, Kan., dealers reported their sales were as much as 40% above last year's. Some repairmen were refusing to accept any more calls.

Beer Goes Fast

A Kansas beer distributor reported taverns running out of draft beer and said it was pressing salesmen into duty as deliverymen. On the opposite side, a rival distributor reported his sales were hurt by the fact people were not having as many outdoor parties and picnics as usual.

Serious drought conditions were reported in Nebraska, Iowa, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas.

Livestock men in Arkansas were trucking in hay from out of state and selling off herds. Texas ranchers were marketing cattle in droves as ranges declined and stock ponds dried up. In northern Louisiana, cotton bolls were popping open, three weeks earlier than usual.

Nazi Returns To Jail Voluntarily

Brunswick, Germany (AP) — A convicted German war crimina,l Hans Walter Zech-Nenntwich, voluntarily returned to prison Friday, ending an international manhunt sparked by his sensational escape 15 weeks ago.

The former SS (elite guard) lieutenant, sentenced to four years in prison for his part in a World War II massacre of Polish Jews, surrendered to German officials declaring that he hoped to win acquittal on appeal.

"I am innocent, and I won't let myself be branded a criminal in my own country," he said in a handwritten statement handed to officials when he gave himself up.

Zech-Nenntwich, 47, who fled to Cairo after his escape, said that in the hope of proving his innocence he had left a safe asylum where he and his family "could have had support and help for an indefinite period of time."

He was taken to the Hannover Jail, one of the most modern in Germany. Officials said escape fom there is impossible. They also said there are no wardens there with Nazi backgrounds such as the one who let Zech-Nenntwich slip out of Brunswick prison April 23.

Zech-Nenntwich said in a Cairo interview he had been helped in his escape by an "organization of former officers." German justice authorities have discounted this claim. Hans Zeeman, jail warden and ex-crony of Zech-Nenntwich from Nazi times, let him out of the Brunswick prison and told police he had been promised a good job by the fugitive.

Vatican To Announce Arab Relations Group

Vatican City (AP) — Reliable Vatican sources said the Vatican soon will announce creation of a Special Commission for Arab Relations.

The sources said the commission would be concerned with Vatican-Moslem relations on the political and diplomatic plane because of the number of Arab nations that contain Christian populations.

Funds Denied For Research Center Project

. . . Pending $25,000 Study

Washington (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee has declined, pending a study, to provide funds for a Midwest livestock research center at Clay Center, Neb., a Senate aide said Friday.

The proposed center would be on the site of the surplus Hastings Naval Ammunition Depot.

Congressional aides said it has been proposed that a cooperative beef research center at Ft. Robinson, Neb., be incorporated into a midwestern center at Clay Center.

While the Budget Bureau recently approved transfer of the land at the Hastings depot from the Navy to the Agriculture Department, the General Services Administration has not formerly transferred it. It is expected to do so in about two weeks, the aide said.

The House, in approving the Agriculture Department money bill, provided for use of a $9.4 million unearmarked fund for cost of production research, the aides said. Department officials indicated to the Senate that if it obtained use of that amount it would allocate about $1.5 million for planning and support of the project at Clay Center, the aides added.

They said the Senate committee, however, stated it wanted to be better informed about the department objectives and locations for such centers and has included $25,000 in the pending bill for the study, thus taking no action to include the Clay Center project this year.

Funds for the Clay Center research development had not been included in the budget recommendations, it was noted.

Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., commented it was unfortunate that the Budget Bureau had delayed approving transfer of the land until so late in the fiscal year.

4 Dead In Drownings

By the Associated Press

Four drownings have been reported in Nebraska. The victims:

Gregg Haman, 3, Omaha.

Douglas Wheeler, 5, Crofton.

Cindy Ann Gleason, 6, Lexington.

Jerry Meyer, 17, Wayne.

The Omaha tot drowned at the Gretna Fish Hatchery Friday. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Haman, the child was with his family on an outing. The boy had been missing about 15 minutes when he was found in a small pond. He had fallen in the water.

The Wheeler boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wheeler, drowned at his farm home northeast of Crofton Thursday. The youngster was wading in a small pond behind a dam near the farmhouse with his 7-year-old sister, Linda, when the accident occurred.

Funeral services will be at 9 a.m. Saturday at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church at Crofton for Douglas.

Police at Burwell said Meyer, son of Donald Meyer of Wayne, was wading in the North Loup River just below the dam in the Burwell Park area late Thursday when he apparently stepped in a hole and was carried away. He was with a party of four other boys who had gone to Burwell for the rodeo.

The Lexington girl drowned Friday in the west sandpit in Lexington.

The girl was reported missing earlier and police found her bicycle at the sandpit. Dragging operations located her body.

It was reported the neighbors saw the girl heading toward the sandpit with her dog, but the dog came home alone later.

Cindy Ann was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gleason.

Iowa Firm Gets Papillion Work

Omaha (AP)—The Leonard Nelson Construction Co., Red Oak, Iowa, was apparent low bidder on emergency levee repair work on Papillion Creek, the Army Engineers announced.

The Nelson bid of $52,500 was lowest of 11 received. The government estimate on the job was $84,229.

The work consists of repairing existing local levees which were eroded or broken during the June flood. It will be done on the Papillion Creek in Sarpy and Douglas Counties west of U.S. 73-75.

Sunday dedication set for marker.

'Boot Hill' Cemetery Ties Ogallala To Past

Lincoln Star Special

Ogallala—Recognition will be given the famous and infamous alike here Sunday when Ogallalans dedicate the state historical marker at "Boot Hill" cemetery.

The wind-swept knoll was final resting place for pioneers and gunmen alike during the days when Ogallala was "Cowboy Capital" at the end of the Texas trail drives from 1875-1885.

Marvin Kivett, Lincoln, director of the State Historical Society will be dedication speaker. G. J. McGinley, Ogallala, vice president of the Nebraska Centennial Commission, will be master of ceremonies.

The land was given to the city in the 1950's—with the stipulation that it be developed—by Rector Searle, whose father was the first white child born in Keith County.

The Keith County Historical Society is restoring the cemetery, assisted by the Jaycees, under the direction of the city park board headed by Russell Glines. Pete Peters is historical society president and Del Hunt is Jaycee president.

Because of its location on a steep hill, it has never been used except as a cemetery in the 1800's. After the town tamed down, citizens established a more respectable cemetery and many bodies at Boot Hill were claimed by families and shipped east to relatives or transferred to Ogallala's present cemetery.

Burials at Boot Hill included three cowboys who met their deaths at the hands of the local sheriff on a single day in July, 1879.

Another buried there was "Rattlesnake Ed" Whorley, killed by Lank Keyes over a $9 "monte" bet in the Cowboys Rest saloon.

Burials also included Jasper Southard, a young cowboy killed by Indians when he was helping his brother-in-law, Sheriff J. C. Hughes, round up some marauding Sioux near Keystone in 1880. He had helped write Keth County's first law enforcement regulations.

One victim was shot three times but his assailant went free on a plea of self-defense. Another was shot five times.

Old courthouse records show three or four Chinese were buried in a common grave, apparently killed in a railroad construction accident in 1868.

Records also show that on Sept. 11, 1876, jurors were summoned to inquire into the death of "Pedro," other name unknown, who was buried that day at Boot Hill.

Young children were also buried on the hill, one four-year-old girl the victim of a rattlesnake bite.

Oldtimers here claim many were "midnight burials" for which no graveside markers were ever erected.

Funds for the marker were raised by Historical Society director Harold Fenwick, assisted by Mrs. Herb Fuller. The Historical Society matched funds put up by the Nebraska Historical Land Mark Council.

Schuyler To Host NFO Meet Aug. 11

Schuyler — The Nebraska National Farmers Organization will hold its annual district meeting Aug. 11 at Schuyler. Included in the NFO district are the First and Second Congressional District counties.

Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. at the Oak Ballroom. Vic Holst, national NFO director from Minnesota, will be the main speaker of the morning session. Other speakers include Msgr. Dan Cooper of Wahoo and Pearle Finnigan, state director of agriculture.

Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff will be the afternoon speaker at 1:30 p.m.

Wittson Is Appointed Dean NU Med College

Dr. Cecil L. Wittson will become dean of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine Sept. 1, succeeding Dr. J. Perry Tollman who has served since 1952 and is now resigning from the administrative post to continue as professor of pathology after a year's leave of absence.

Dr. Wittson

Dr. Wittson, professor of neurology and psychiatry and chairman of the department since 1950, is also director of the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute in Omaha, a research, training, and treatment center operated in partnership by the University and the Nebraska Department of Public Institutions.

He will relinquish the NPI directorship but will retain his present positions as director of mental health for the Department of Public Institutions and as director of teaching and research for the Meyer Childrens Therapy Center at the college. As dean he will also be superintendent of the University Hospital.

University Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin and George Morris, director of the Nebraska Department of Public Institutions, announced that the present assistant director of NPI, Dr. LaVern Craig Strough, has agreed to serve as acting director of the institute. Dr. Strough is also a professor of neurology and psychiatry at the college.

Morris also announced appointment of Dr. Strough as one of three new assistant directors of mental health for the department. Dr. Strough will serve in the area of training. The other two, both members of the college and the NPI staffs, are Dr. Robert J. Ellingson for research, and Dr. Thaddeus P. Krush for community programs.

A native of South Carolina, Dr. Wittson received his M.D. degree from South Carolina Medical College in 1931. From 1933 to 1950, when he came to Nebraska, he was on the staff of Central Islip State Hospital in New York. During World War II he was chief of psychiatry at the U.S. Naval Base hospital, Sydney, Australia.

Wisner Youth Suffocates In Farm Accident

Wisner (AP)—Kennard Taege, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Taege, who farms near Wisner, was suffocated Thursday in an accident at the farm home while he was grinding corn.

His father, the only other person there at the time, was struck on the head in the accident and hospitalized, so no further details of the accident were immediately learned.

The Taege's only other child, a son, was killed in a gun accident in western Nebraska a year ago this month.

Methodists Give $10,670 Towards Wolbach Church

Nebraska Methodists have contributed a total of $10,670 to help rebuild the Methodist Church at Wolbach which was completely destroyed by a tornado May 5.

The special Wolbach appeal was conducted in June after approval by the Nebraska annual conference meeting in Scottsbluff earlier in the month.

The Asian Future

By MARQUIS CHILDS

(William O. Dobler, The Star's editor, is on vacation. Today's column is by the nationally known news analyst and political writer, Marquis Childs.)

WASHINGTON—The really deep trouble in Viet Nam lies outside the scope of American sea and air power. The great question is whether the South Vietnamese army has the will to go on fighting on the ground against communist guerrillas after 17 years of almost unremitting warfare.

A Difficult Choice

Before the naval action in the Gulf of Tonkin, evidence was accumulating that war weariness and political dissension in Saigon had raised grave doubts about the future. Hints were coming from the military clique headed by General Nguyen Khanh that the United States would have to take a much larger share of the burden, including even direct participation in combat. On the recommendation of General Maxwell Taylor, the new ambassador in Saigon, Washington moved to increase the number of American "military advisers" from 16,000 to 22,000. They were, it was reported, empowered to fire back if fired upon. No one can say whether this will be enough. At the same time, disturbing rumors have circulated in Saigon about a new coup to replace General Khanh. If the worst should happen, the Johnson administration faces an awesome choice—sending in large numbers of American combat troops or expanding the war with massive bombing in the north. The risks in either course are incalculable.

To get out, a third choice, seems impossible in view of what has gone before and in the light of politics in a presidential year. The beginning of the Korean War 14 years ago comes vividly to mind. The atmosphere then was very much what it is today. Republicans and Democrats were rallying around President Truman and promising him support against communist aggression.

Robert A Taft, minority leader in the Senate, gave reluctant assent despite his strong isolationist convictions. It was a moment of patriotic fervor in which Truman, by almost unanimous opinion, emerged as a strong and decisive president.

But that mood quickly altered. As the woefully untrained American troops rushed from Japan were pushed back almost off the Korean peninsula with fearful casualties, it became "Truman's war." By the 1952 campaign and the disaster resulting from the massive Chinese invasion, this was the chief line of Republican attack. General Eisenhower could say at the University of Illinois that Midwestern farm boys should stay at home and let Asians fight Asians.

Truman had resisted the demand to bomb the "privileged sanctuary" across the Yalu River. He had shown marked restraint out of concern that the war would be enlarged to a global scale. He was damned from hell to breakfast for that restraint.

There is one important difference today. In 1950 Truman went to the United Nations before responding to the North Korean attack. By a piece of luck, the Soviet delegate was absent so that the Security Council could pass a resolution calling on the U.N. to join in resisting aggression. This time the United States struck first.

★

Except for the communist nations, almost every U.N. member approved a joint defense of Korea. Even neutralist India sent an ambulance unit. If a widened conflict develops in Viet Nam, this country will find it hard to rally support. It will have the look of a war waged by white men against Asians.

No Victory Possible

This is in effect what President de Gaulle has been saying—that the war, as it is currently being fought, cannot be won. The French tried for nearly seven years beginning in 1947, and they sacrificed the "cream" of St. Cyr, their West Point, in the vain effort. Unhappily, De Gaulle's prescription for ending the war has been based on a formula of neutralization that sounds like surrender. The long-term consequences of a greatly enlarged war in Asia, if it comes to that, are unforeseeable. The most important single event of the past two to three years has been the split between Russia and China, with reverberations throughout the communist world. In recent weeks that split has seemed to be irreconciliable. It could be healed by a war between the United States and China. Expert opinion here is that Moscow would stop short with condemnation of American moves.

But that is conjecture. As often in the past, the most baffling and frustrating element in the new crisis is the enigma of Red China. American policy has walled off a nation of six or seven hundred million people and what goes on in the vastness of Peking is as mysterious as what may be happening on Mars. That may have been inevitable after Korea. But it is today a tragic commentary on the darkness that cloaks the dubious future in Asia.

Senate On Housing

So many communities looking forward to the passing of the administration's omnibus public housinng bill have been disappointed to learn that the U.S. Senate set it aside, and, instead, passed a bill of its own which does little more than continue the life of present laws another 15 months.

It wasn't that the Senate rejected the administrative philosophy embodied in the expanded bill. Rather it felt that civil rights and other key legislation had occupied too much time this session to permit the sort of study the housing bill required. So it took a 15 months rain check.

The omnibus bill contained numerous subjects but its basic design was to make public housing more workable and thus hasten the solution of this municipal problem.

Specifically one thing it would have done was to permit the cities to purchase existing properties. The present law emphasizes new construction. Purchasing adequate existing properties would permit cities to avoid aggravating the problem of overbuilding and make better use of what has already been built. Many cities in this tight spot reject public housing proposals not because they are against them in principle, but because to embrace them would cause serious losses to the private sector of the economy.

The administration's measure would have authorized 240,000 public housing units, but would have required only 140,000 of them under the heading of new construction. This was a modest goal when matched with national need but it was sufficient to provide a definitive test of the new idea.

Currently most of the public housing projects are being confined to the smaller communities which have found in them an answer to housing for the aged. But the greater problem, although no more poignant, is to be found in the larger cities where people of very limited circumstances can get no relief.

Test Ban Birthday

This week marks the first anniversary of the test ban treaty between the United States and Russia.

The best evidence that it was a good thing rests in the fact that it is creating no news. Agreements leading to a peaceful world are all that way, news being based on conflict.

On looking back the treaty did not accomplish all that its most idealistic supporters claimed for it. It did not bring all our problems to an end. But it did bring a better relationship between Russia and the United States in one area. Neither country, so far as we know, has committed any consequential violations.

But the treaty did a few other things not directly connected with nuclear violation. It revealed a joint aspiration for the avoidance of war and violence, a preference for peaceful solution of problems.

The treaty was also not the phony its critics claimed it would be. They considered it another trick with good old honest U.S.A. going for it. Instead it did offer vital experience in the techniques of negotiation and limited trust. And these two things open the door to further steps toward an orderly world.

Perhaps the greatest obstacles to the resolution of a great many of the differences between the West and the East are based in no-confidence. And there have been many events which firmed up that attitude and few which worked oppositely. We need more faith building agreements such as the test ban treaty.

Editorial Of The Day

A Little Of What Was

From The St. Louis Post-Dispatch

When the first Americans moved into what is now the continental United States, all was wilderness—mountains, prairies, plains, hills and streams untouched by humanity. This was truly America the Beautiful.

For today's Americans, about 3 per cent of all this land remains untouched, or relatively so. And Congress seems near to a historic decision. It would try to protect what's left for future Americans.

Last year the Senate voted by 73 to 12 to establish a national wilderness preservation system. The House, however, had resisted action for three years. Its Interior Committee was caught in a jam between conservationists on one side and Western lumber, mining and ranching interests on the other.

Now the House has broken the jam, by the overwhelming vote of 373 to 1. It has accepted a compromise bill, which would protect 9,100,000 acres of wilderness at once and allow later protection of the remaining 61,000,000 acres of federal lands considered to be in a wilderness state. Congress would have to approve the later inclusions, however. The Senate bill would have allowed the Secretary of Interior to add to wilderness lands unless Congress vetoed his action. The House bill also grants some concessions to the exploitive interests in the West.

There would be less urgency for acceptance of the compromise were not time running out on the forests and mountains primeval.

Chinese Buildup Recalls Korea

WASHINGTON — Inside reason for President Johnson's vigorous crackdown on the North Vietnamese with full-dress fanfare, is a series of disturbing intelligence reports from Saigon. These show that the Red Chinese are maneuvering in much the same way they did prior to the beginning of the Korean war.

Chinese troops have been massing north of the Vietnamese border as they did north of the Korean border early in 1950.

Rallies have been held in China to warn the people that they may have to be called upon to defend North Vietnam. This also happened prior to the Korean invasion.

Chinese warnings to the United States have been worded in almost the same language as during the Korean attack.

U.S. experts are not quite sure what is behind the Chinese maneuvering. They know that extreme communists of the Chinese variety operate on the theory that the more trouble there is in a capitalist country the better it is for communism and that a Goldwater victory would alienate most of America's allies and seriously disrupt NATO.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Chinese also may figure that in an election year it would be difficult for President Johnson to counter a Chinese attack for fear of dragging the United States into war.

But, whatever the Chinese motive, President Johnson has determined not to let Peking be under any doubt regarding the firm position of the United States. He knows that, prior to the Korean attack, both Stalin and Mao Tse-tung were convinced the United States would not retaliate.

This was partly the result of a public statement by Dean Acheson indicating that Korea would not be defended by the United States. It was also the result of a little known romance between an American colonel in Seoul and the top female spy of North Korea, beautiful Kim Soo Im, who was living in the colonel's home and had access to his cables.

Col. John E. Baird, provost marshal of the U.S. Army in Korea, fell madly in love with the beautiful Korean, who, according to the Korean press, bore him a child.

Kim Soo Im was a vivacious, American-educated girl, who while living with the colonel was married to one of the top communists of North Korea, Lee Kang Kook. She was able to supply her husband with all details on American military strength, together with cables between Seoul and Washington showing that we had written off Korea in case of attack and would not defend it.

President Johnson is determined that the Red Chinese be under no illusions regarding American determination to defend South Vietnam today.

NOTE—Col. Baird was retired from the army. Kim was beheaded by the South Korean government as a spy.

Goldwater Ducks His Senate Task

WASHINGTON — In the Viet Nam crisis President Johnson is experiencing the sharpest political risks inherent in the presidential power.

His Southeast Asia policy will be in the campaign, of course. If it is working well, he will put it there. If its course does not run smoothly, his oppositon will put him on the defensive about it.

The President has taken a somewhat different and sterner direction than his immediate predecessors. This is in character for him, as he always considered military affairs his special field. As Senate majority leader, he gave the coveted Foreign Relations Committee assignments to others and kept his own hand in the Defense Department.

It is still no very cynical asperity to add that his Republican rival, Sen. Barry Goldwater, also considers himself a military expert and has demanded a "can win" policy. The President is always aware of the political angles.

He will note that Goldwater did not appear for the debate on the congressional resolution of support for the Johnson military moves, but he will understand that abtention. Both men realize that the President has the power and duty to act and must take the consequences.

☆ ☆ ☆

There were troubled men among those who voted for the resolution, but they knew they had to back up the President before the world. Most of them think the President's actions wise, but those who do not have no desire to undercut him at this point.

What is more significant in view of the military-expert role Goldwater finds so congenial is that he continued his vacation while the Senate worked on the military appropriations. This is the real battleground for those who want to be in on the takeoffs rather than kibitzing the crash-landings.

His absence did spare him fresh attention to the paradox of his position as a dedicated budget-cutter who wants greater military strength and action. By remaining in California he did not embarrass the budget-cutters who are on his side, nor himself.

The Republican nominee is pursuing on the whole a very practical course since San Francisco. He rarely appears on the floor of the Senate to be tempted into indelible answers to roll calls or the hazards of partisan debate.

☆ ☆ ☆

Minority Leader Everett Dirksen carries on in the Goldwater direction while Goldwater himself attends to party organization and works on the unity pattern, which is largely a public relations matter. There is less in the meetings now taking place here and in Gettysburg than meets the eye, but they were indicated.

ON TARGET

Look for both Barry Goldwater and his vice presidential running mate, William Miller, to come to Nebraska in the coming weeks.

WALTON

Efforts are also under way to attempt to bring President Johnson into the state, perhaps as part of an Iowa-Nebraska campaign trip which envisions stops in Omaha, Lincoln, Des Moines and Cedar Rapids.

Goldwater's appearance will no doubt be in Omaha—where his support is the heaviest and the most vocal, where his previous fund-raising sorties have met with spectacular success, and where his Midwest campaign aide Dick Herman resides.

The forum for Goldwater's appearance will be a $100-a-plate dinner.

A $50-a-plate Goldwater dinner sold 1,600 tickets in Omaha in 1960. Lincoln's $50-a-plate Goldwater appearance in 1962 sold 700 ducats. That's another solid fiscal reason why Omaha will be the site of this year's big Goldwater dinner in Nebraska.

Republicans have also lined up two national speakers for three fund-raising dinners in Nebraska later this month. Walter Judd will be the speaker in Lincoln Aug. 29. Details on the other dinners will be revealed next week.

In addition, 32 county fund-raising dinners are in the works — featuring Sen. Roman Hruska, the county's congressman, Dwight Burney, Charles Thone and the GOP Statehouse team.

Democrats will bring a national speaker to Omaha Sept. 18 for their annual Jefferson-Jackson Day fund-raising dinner. It's no secret that they would like to have the President.

The Midwest, it now appears, may turn out to be the major battleground of the 1964 presidential campaign.

Early estimates give Johnson the East, while Goldwater seems likely to win the South and the West (with California a big and important question mark).

In the Midwest, Goldwater appears to be ahead—but Johnson is well within striking distance in a number of midwestern states.

Nebraska is likely to get more than its usual share of attention as a result of this shifting emphasis. The state's five electoral votes do not mean much, but they represent a portion of the Midwest bloc of votes which could mean victory or defeat for either candidate.

Illinois, Ohio and Michigan are likely to get the most attention in the Midwest. But the little states are not going to be forgotten this time.

☆ ☆ ☆

Terry Carpenter—perhaps the best-known name in Nebraska, a legendary figure in his own time, a man who has plenty of fans and a distinguished list of enemies.

A lot of important people get awfully mad at Terry Carpenter. They say he is a demagogue, that he is totally inconsistent, that he is more destructive than constructive, that he "uses" the press for his own personal ends.

Well, we have yet to find a "little guy" who is mad at Terry Carpenter. Does that prove he is a demagogue? Or does it indicate rather that he has generally looked after the best interests of the people?

Inconsistent? Yes, in some of the things he does and says. But has he been inconsistent in pursuing the ends he seeks?

More destructive than constructive? He may be pretty destructive sometimes, but few senators have been as constructive as he. Terry Carpenter's tax reforms adopted by the 1959 Legislature still stand out as an amazing legislative achievement.

Does he "use" the press? The press gathers and distributes the news. Terry Carpenter makes news. He makes news by action, by word and by the very force of his personality. We don't think he "uses" the press, anymore than we think it "uses" him.

What we are leading up to is a simple statement: After considerable observation, we think Terry Carpenter is an excellent state senator, probably the best informed of all, the most active, one of the most influential, one of the most constructive.

Some mighty important issues would not come before the Legislature if Terry Carpenter were not there to raise them. Check the business of the 1959 and 1963 sessions against that conducted in 1961, when Carpenter was not there.

A perfect senator? There is none.

But, Terry Carpenter is one of this state's best senators. And we hope he will be a member of the Legislature which convenes next January.

BOB CONSIDINE

General Hostility Toward The Press

NEW YORK — It is going to be a long, hot summer and fall for the last great free press on earth. Little it will print or speak over the air will gain total acceptance. Its straight news accounts of the coming political campaign will be viewed by about half of the electorate as villainous. The constitutional right of its columnists and commentators to air their personal views will arouse much more vituperative personal views by millions of readers and listeners, all crying foul.

This is going to be a rough campaign, engaged in by two hard-bitten but curiously thin-skinned candidates. Both President Johnson and Senator Goldwater are quick on the draw to accuse the press if some act or statement does not pan out as well as expected. Their followers are even more sensitive.

☆ ☆ ☆

General Eisenhower's passing reference to the press at the GOP convention touched off a roar that was startingly bellicose. Sitting in the press section, one had the odd feeling that if somebody in the Cow Palace had yelled, "Let's go get em," the delegates would have come tumbling over the rails like a boarding party.

Few seemed to take into consideration that it was a wholly gratuitous observation, or that it was made by a man who enjoyed a consistently better press during his public life than any other figure of this century. All that mattered was that Ike had lighted a fuse that longed for ignition, and the press in general was booed.

☆ ☆ ☆

Perhaps the delegates to the Democratic convention will have some animus to spend on us, too. It is open season. Neither the cops nor the Negroes like the way the race riots and lootings are being covered. In the opinion of many whites in the South, all visiting New York reporters are communists. Couple of weeks ago in Havana about a quarter of a million Fidelistos dutifully booed when Castro rasped some abusive generalization about how the U.S. press reports his revolution.

The duty of the working journalist, straight reporter and opinionated pundit is to see to it that no outside pressure inhibits him. If he is a reporter he can, with some justification, remind himself that he happens to labor in a trade that has measurably superior ethics than the profession of politics. If he is a pundit, he should pundit for what he sincerely believes is the truth and to heck with the tone of the mail.

Reporters assigned to tag along with the candidates during the campaign usually are alternated by their editors, in an effort to keep their stories down the middle of the road. This has been found to be quite effective, except in the eyes of the candidates. Every new boy who joins the campaign train or plane is instinctively regarded by that candidate as of the rival political faith. He is believed to be packing a knife somewhere in his typewriter case, honed for the moment when it will be plunged.

Sometimes a candidate comes to the conclusion that the whole tribe assigned to cover him is conspiring against him. Dick Nixon, for example, received coverage identical to that of Jack Kennedy, but near the end of his campaign he would not see the press.

☆ ☆ ☆

Wes Gallagher, general manager of the Associated Press, has issued an order of the day to his troops in respect to what he refers to, in the commendable conservatism of his organization, as the "latent" hostility of the public toward news gatherers. He stresses that reporting must be precise, non-partisan, and give both sides of arguments. If a candidate clams up on a charge lodged by his opponent, this too, must be told to the public—just as would his hot denial.

Gallagher, one of the finer reporters of our time, never wrote a truer line than this one, from his order: "In political debates or speeches, accuracy is not the key objective of the participants—but it is ours."

One hopes that the readers, listeners and viewers of the events to come will keep that in the backs of their minds.

Your Five Cents Worth

Good Samaritans

Lincoln, Neb.

Recently we had the misfortune of running out of gas on the Interstate. It was a Sunday night, and the cars and trucks whizzed by while we waited for the emergency truck to bring gas. Our car trunk and hood were left up to indicate distress.

Finally two men stopped and asked if they could help. Armed with a ham radio set, flashlight and good will, they were members of a national club of emergency radio service, called REACT. Their mission is to help people in distress.

Soon they were joined by another couple of men, also touring the Interstate to help people in trouble. They went after gas, and soon had us on our way, grateful for their help.

They accepted no payment for their aid, which led me to believe there are still some good Samaritans, roaming around with ham radios for REACT.

GRATEFUL

OFF THE RECORD

By Ed. Reed

1964, The Register and Tribune Syndicate 8-8

"Rollo and his wife are incompatible—he hooks and she slices."

LIFE BEGINS AT FORTY:

Many Senior Citizens Own Their Own Homes

Q. "Do most older people own their own homes?"

A. Yes, about two-thirds of all older couples—and about one-third of single older people—own their own homes and have clear title to them. Their equity in these homes averages about $8,000.

Q. "If so many old people own their own homes, why do we need Medicare or any other national health insurance program for them? Folks who get seriously sick could always sell their home and thus pay their own way for needed medical care."

A. It would be very cruel to expect elders to sell their homes to finance needed medical care. Home ownership not only means basic security but also peace of mind. If you forced older people to sell their homes to finance a serious illness, where would they live when and if they recovered?

Q. "I'm 65 and drawing Social Security, but my wife is only 55. She is nearly blind and also crippled with arthritis. Can't she draw some disability pay based on my Social Security?"

A. No, a wife without Social Security credits of her own is not eligible for any benefits based on her husband's coverage until she is at least 62.

Q. "I'm a widow, 67, and have been corresponding three years with a retired florist whose name I got from a pen pal club. He lives in England, writes breezy, affectionate letters, and looks like a double for the late Lionel Barrymore judging from the snapshot he sent. I've given him the sad news I'm living on social security and am no catch for a gold digger. But he says he's no catch for a gold digger either and is coming over next month to talk marriage. What do I do now?"

A. Get ready to welcome him. If you've generated enough mutual interest to correspond three years you must have discovered some solid qualities in each other. One needs to be wary of people met through correspondence clubs. But the fact that this Lothario's interest hasn't waned since you've described your finances suggests he may be worth getting acquainted with in person.

Q. "It was a sad day last week when our son, 31, walked out of our furniture store and said he was going back to college for an M.A. and then take up teaching. My wife and I have built this into one of the finest furniture stores in town and have been training him to take over so we could retire next year. But he says he has no interest in retailing. What can we do?"

A. Take it in your stride and remind yourselves that folks do better in jobs of their own choice than in occupations which have been wished on them by others. If you're really ready to retire you should consider (1) selling to the highest bidder or (2) turning the reins over to your brightest employee and name him manager. But make sure you've got something waiting that will be as rewarding as your work. Too many businessmen turn over the reins to someone else or sell out at 65 and after a few months of retirement boredom wish they were back in the saddle.

If you would like a booklet "Retiring to Florida" write to this column c/o The Lincoln Star enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents to cover handling casts.

16 Counties To Be Declared Disaster Areas Soon—Callan

Washington — Democratic First District congressional nominee Clair Callan Friday announced that 16 southern and southeastern Nebraska counties will be officially declared drought disaster areas "within the next several days."

Callan made the statement after conferring with Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

The declaration by the Department of Agriculture will enable farmers in the stricken counties to pasture and harvest hay from diverted acres.

Callan is in Washington to attend a conference for Democratic congressional candidates and to confer with administration and congressional leaders.

Callan said that he was "pleased that the secretary has been so prompt in recognizing the needs of these counties."

They are Fillmore, Saline, Hamilton, York, Franklin, Webster, Thayer, Jefferson, Gage, Pawnee, Johnson, Nemaha, Otoe, Lancaster, Clay and Nuckolls.

Meet Star Carrier Thomas Mouzes

Thomas

Thomas Mouzes, carrier salesman on Rt. B673 delivers the Lincoln Star to his customers in the area from 44 to 48 and L to T Streets. He is the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Mouzes of 303 Witherbee and really enjoys his early morning route. Thomas and his parents attend the Greek Orthodox Church where he is an active member of the youth group.

Thomas will be an eighth grader at Millard Lefler Junior High School and states that last year his favorite subjects were history and industrial arts. He has made items ranging from wall plaques to bells in industrial arts class. Baseball is his favorite sport and the Philadelphia Phillies is his favorite team.

A hobby which consumes most of his spare time is that of building model cars. At present he has 46 models. His favorite models are a 1932 Ford coupe, 1940 Ford coupe, and a 1949 Mercury. The coupes are candy apple red in color while the Mercury is purple. The remainder of his free time is spent riding his English racer. Going to college and studying to be an electrical engineer is his future ambition.

Thomas' conscientious delivery and friendly attitude have earned him 3 daily and 4 Sunday customers, meaning a larger route profit. Of the $26.00 profit he makes some is used to buy cltohing, the remainder is saved. Thomas feels that the route has helped him in many ways ranging from learning how to handle money to meeting new friends and being more responsible.

Cole Will Head State Demo Ag Council

Dr. Ralph Cole, professor of agricultural economics at the University of Nebraska, has been named chairman of the Nebraska Democratic Agricultural Council.

Appointment of council members was announced Friday by State Chairman John Mitchell of Kearney. Appointments were ratified by the Democratic state executive committee.

"This committee will devote itself to ways and means of promoting the growth and prosperity of all those engaged in agriculture and related activities," Mitchell said.

County Democratic agricultural councils, composed of five members, will be named in each of the 93 counties, he noted. In this manner, some 500 persons will be directly involved in the work of the state council.

Among its functions, Mitchell said, will be the formulation of proposed agricultural planks for both the state and national party platforms.

Other members:

Harold Tremain of Sidney, William Biles Jr. of Pender, Ralph Raikes of Ashland, Harold Dinklage of Wisner, John Pickerel of Unadilla, Kenneth Holmes of Byron, Woodrow Metzger of Gordon, Franklin Sands of Gering, John Steinauer of Steinauer, Arlene Hart of Sargent, Marilyn Fowler of Lexington, George McGuire of Wisner, Ervain Freihe of McCook, Tom Allington of Sunol, R. F. Peters of Thedford, Robert Pearson of Plymouth, Jack Cary of Kearney, Lavon Schwarting of Gordon, and Gerald McGinley of Ogallala.

NU Moves To Extend Library Mall

. . . REGENTS OKAY PHONE TIE-UP

Construction is scheduled to being next week on extending a mall and blacktopping two parking areas at the University of Nebraska.

The Board of Regents approved the low bid of $80,010 by General Concrete Co. of Lincoln for the work.

The mall north of Love Library, from 12th to 14th, will be extended into the streets, toward the Mueller Carillon Tower, eliminating through traffic on S and T Sts.

Each parking lot adjacent to the mall will be blacktopped. The mall will be landscaped with trees and grass.

In other action the Board approved installation of a telephone cable connecting the Ag College Campus with the City Campus.

The estimated cost of cable and connecting services by the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co., on a unit basis, is $40,000.

In addition to increasing telephone capacity on the Ag College campus, this installation eliminates rental of automatic satellite equipment, estimated at $5,000 a year.

The Regents also approved bids for a metal building at the Horning State Farm near Plattsmouth. Low bid for the building proper was submitted by Judd Brothers of Lincoln at $6,167. Tiekotter Building Service of Plattsmouth's bid of $881 was accepted for installation of a sewer system in the building.

Appraisal Firms, Commissioner To Meet On Property Evaluation

State Tax Commissioner Forrest Johnson is arranging a meeting next week with representatives of all commercial reappraisal firms operating in Nebraska. They will discuss methods of determining actual value of real property for tax purposes.

"We will review what the firms have done and are doing," Johnson said, "and analyze procedures to help establish guidelines which will better enable us to achieve uniformity and equality."

The 1963 law setting up mandatory reappraisals of real property in all counties by 1972 provided that the State Tax Commissioner's office should set up rules and regulations for reappraisals.

These were drawn and approved before any contracts were signed by counties for reappraisals, but Johnson described them as being "more of a general nature" than what is expected to come from next week's meeting.

Johnson said his office wants to learn how each appraiser is using the six statutory factors for determining actual value, and what guidelines might be adopted by all firms to achieve greater uniformity in application of the factors.

DR. DOROTHY LARERY

MISS AUDREY NEWTON

Ag Department Heads Among New NU Staff

The University of Nebraska Board of Regents named two department chairmen at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics Friday.

The new appointees and their departments:

—Audrey Newton, clothing, textiles and design.

—Dr. Dorothy Larery, family economics and management.

Miss Newton was head of the clothing, textiles and related arts division at the University of Vermont. She received a bachelor's degree from Bradley University and a master's from the University of Wisconsin and is working on her doctorate at Ohio State University. She is a native of Wyoming, Ill.

Dr. Larery joined the University staff in 1954 and has served as associate professor of family economics and management. A native of Parsons, Kan., she holds a doctor's degree from Purdue University.

The Regents named Edward E. Lundak director of scholarships and financial aids. He succeeds Eldon Teten who will become assistant superintendent of the Hammond (Ind.) Public Schools. Lundak has served as program director in the Junior Division.

Charity H. Greene was named assistant director of libraries for the humanities to succeed Robert Quinsey who has accepted a position in California.

Other appointments:

Dr. John K. Coster, professor of agricultural education. He received a doctorate from Yale University and has been on the staff of Purdue University since 1951.

Earl W. Gleaves, Extension poultry specialist with the rank of assistant professor. Gleaves is slated to receive a doctor's degree from Oklahoma State University this month. He has been a member of the Oklahoma staff since 1957.

Donald W. Forester, assistant professor of physics. He received a doctor's degree from the University of Tennessee in 1964 and has been research assistant at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory

Kenneth L. Moler Jr., assistant professor of English. He received a Ph.D. from Harvard in 1964 and has been an instructor in general education at Harvard since 1962.

Michael S. Turner, Extensionist economist with the rank of assistant professor. He is slated to receive a doctor's degree from Ohio State University this month and has been on the Ohio State staff since 1959.

Dr. Glen J. Volmar, associate professor of agricultural economics. He received the doctorate from Ohio State University and has been employed by the Federal Extension Service in Washington, D.C.

Ronald H. Ozaki was named assistant professor in the School of Social Work. He received a doctor's degree from Washington University in 1960 and has worked in Hawaii since graduation.

450 Degrees Conferred At NU Summer Commencement

The University of Nebraska conferred baccalaureate and advanced degrees upon 450 graduates at the institution's second largest summer commencement Friday evening.

Honorary degrees were awarded to Samuel C. Waugh of Washington, D.C., former president of the Export-Import Bank, and Arthur C. Bryan of Chappaqua, N.Y., president of Union Carbide's Consumer Products Division.

Waugh, a native of Plattsmouth, was cited for specialized public service which has helped "to extend new opportunities to millions of people of varying Nationalities and contributed to the maintenance of world peace through the encouragement of economic growth." He is now serving as a consultant on international affairs for a New York bank.

Bryan, a university graduate and native of Minden, was honored for "his pursuit of knowledge in new and broader fields and without ostentation, and without usurping the achievements of others while advancing steadily through the ranks of one of the largest American industrial producers, Union Carbide."

Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin presided and Dr. Adam C. Breckenridge, vice chancellor and dean of faculties, was master of ceremonies.

Whatever the season, there's always vacationing going on, with sporting equipment and cameras being two of the most important items to take along. To keep the public up to date on the latest in sporting goods, cameras and photo supplies, manufacturers invested nearly $7½ million nationally in newspaper advertising in 1960.

Suburbia Welcomes Guests

EASTBOROUGH

This has been a very full week for many suburban residents—one filled with unpacking, packing, and greeting of guests.

The welcome mats are brushed, the house has been cleaned, and the air conditioners turned on—all ready for a busy weekend of parties and out-of-town visitors.

Needless to say, suburban residents do not have to exert themselves to make their guests welcome—it just comes naturally.

Last Friday was an exceptionally busy day for the members of the Raymond Degenhardt family—especially for Danny, Alice, and David.

They entered St. Elizabeth Hospital on Thursday evening and by Friday evening the three youngsters were minus their tonsils.

Visiting her grandchildren during the weekend was Mrs. Therese Degenhardt of Crete. On Sunday, the Degenhardt family was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Degenhardt, also of Crete, who enjoyed Sunday dinner and then returned to their home accompanied by Mrs. Therese Degenhardt.

Northwestern travelers who have just returned home as of Monday morning are Maj. and Mrs. Richard Kelsay and daughters, Theresa and Cheryl Ann.

Oregon City, Ore., was their first stopping point. Here they were the guests of Maj. Kelsay's mother and brothers, Mrs. Violette Kelsay and Paul and Clifford.

The return trip was a very scenic one for the Kelsays for they toured Glacier National Park and the Black Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Erlewine entertained on Tuesday evening when they had Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scheele and daughters, Karen, Christy, Carla as their invited guests.

The dessert supper was to bid farewell to the Scheele family who departed Lincoln on Friday for Oneida, N.Y.

Vacations and parties were the topics of conversation at the home of Mrs. Jack Budler on Wednesday evening when she entertained at a bridge party.

Seated at the two tables were Mrs. Harry Rust, Mrs. Keith Erlewine, Mrs. Frank Fleagle, Mrs. Lisle Robinette, Mrs. Paul Scheele, Mrs. Les Noble, and Mrs. Doris Brown.

A current houseguest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Erlewine is Timmy Ateyo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ateyo.

Timmy will be the guest of the Erlewine family for a week while his parents and Mrs. Ateyo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rogers, vacation in the Black Hills and Colorado.

A visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Mitchell and their sons, Phil and Neil, is Mrs. Mitchell's brother, Donald Van Deusen of Tucson, Ariz.

Mr. Van Deusen arrived on Thursday and will be at the Mitchell home for several days.

WEDGEWOOD MANOR

Mrs. James Shephard was hostess at her home a week ago Thursday when she entertained at coffee in honor of her sister, Mrs. Walter Vidlock.

Mrs. Vidlock, a Madison, Wis., resident, was a guest at the Shephard home for several days.

The guest list included Mrs. Shephard's mother, Mrs. Alex Stoehr; Mrs. Albert Klein, and Mrs. Robert Craig.

COTNER TERRACE

In the summertime, the tables are turned for many teachers, who become students for the university summer sessions. And one such teacher in Cotner Terrace was Irvin Deeds, who returned recently with his wife and children, Terry, Richard, and John, from Laramie, Wyo., where he had been attending classes at the University of Wyoming.

The session lasted five weeks, and the Deeds family made their temporary home in Laramie while Mr. Deeds went to school.

PARK MANOR

Well, there are vacations, and then there are a vacationer's vacation, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson and their sons, Dennis and Duayne, fit into both categories.

Mr. Nelson has returned recently from his vacation—when he took a group of boy scouts for a canoe trip into Canada. The starting point for the trip was Ely, Minn.

While Mr. Nelson was paddling his own canoe, Mrs. Nelson and the Nelson sons traveled to New Orleans, where they were the guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Buel.

Dennis Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson, returned home just in time to begin planning his eleventh birthday party. The festivities began Wednesday with a family celebration, and will end Friday, when Dennis is honored at a party for which David Bowmaster, Jerry Barnett, Steve Weller, Robert Ozenbaugh, and brother Duayne will be guests.

Entertaining last weekend at their Fremont cabin were Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Sikyta and their children, Debbie, Terri, and Freddy.

They had as their "cabin-comers" Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Kelley and family, all of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Noe of Lincoln.

A Trend For The Light Fantastic

Vacationers returned to their homes in Eastridge earlier this week — just in time to attend the Trend Dancing party which was held last evening at East Hills.

On the guest list for the summer dance were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Paul, Mrs. Maxine Farrell of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. King Alden, and Col. and Mrs. John Robinson.

Dinner, Prenuptial Courtesy

The social calendar has been filled with parties for Miss Teresa Margaret David in the mid-summer weeks preceding her marriage to Paul Kugrens, which will be an event of Friday, Aug. 14.

Next Thursday evening, the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. David, will entertain at dinner in courtesy to their daughter and her fiance. The dinner will be held at the Hotel Cornhusker, and the 40 guests will include members of the family and bridal party.

Coming from out of town will be Capt. and Mrs. Walter Blore of Atwater, Calif.; the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. George David of St. Petersburg, Fla., formerly of Lincoln; and Mrs. Antons Freibergs, Canoga Park, Calif., sister of Mr. Kugrens.

The wedding of Miss David and Mr. Kugrens will take place at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the First Presbyterian Church.

We Hear That

Leaving on Thursday after visiting in Lincoln for a week were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Ward and children, Mary Beth, Barbara, Bill and John, who were the guests of Mr. Ward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ward. A University of Nebraska alumni and foreign export manager for Du Pont Company, Mr. Ward with his family was honored at a picnic last Monday evening. The travelers will visit in Omaha with members of Mrs. Ward's family before returning home to Wilmington, Del.

Czechoslovakian Check-Up

It almost was the Wilber Czech Festival all over again Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roth entertained at dinner at their home.

Czechoslovakia was the topic of conversation for the Roths and their guests who included Mrs. Ida Schenk of Brno, Czechoslovakia, who is visiting in Lincoln with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Berk; Sister Teresa and Mother Superior Martha, both of Lincoln's Marian Center and both natives of Czechoslovakia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roth, incidentally, are planning an autumn trip to Europe during which they will visit family members at Prague, Czechoslovakia, the home town of Mrs. Roth's mother, Mrs. Marie Panek of Madison.

From the left (in front) are Mother Martha, Mrs. Schenk, Sister Teresa and Mrs. Berk; and (at back) Mr. Berk, Mrs. Roth and Mr. Roth.

Speakers

Mrs. Robert Sherrick, who served as toastmistress for the regular meeting of the Lincoln Toastmistress Club on Monday, introduced the following program speakers: Mrs. Robert Herman, "Conversation: A Lost Art?"; Mrs. W. E. Woodworth, "Names and Numbers;" and Mrs. Wallace Peterson, "From Here To Athens."

Topic mistress was Mrs. Robert Meyerhoff, who also reported on the recent convention of the International Toastmistress Clubs at Denver.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
3♥	3♠	Pass	4♠

Opening lead — jack of hearts.

The most interesting hands are those where one side has to make a very good play and the other side then has to make an equally good play in order to overcome the effect of the first one.

This crossing of swords doesn't occur very often, since most hands tend to be one-sided affairs, but when the opportunity arises and the players meet their respective obligations, they have something worth talking about.

This deal occurred in a rubber bridge game. East, taking advantage of the vulnerability, opened the bidding with three hearts. South had a choice between doubling for takeout or overcalling with three spades, and chose to bid three spades.

North raised to four, of course, and West led the jack of hearts. Declarer realized that the lead was likely to be a singleton and that if he covered the jack with the queen, East would win it with the ace and probably shift to a club.

South knew that this sequence of plays would result in defeat — since West was likely to have the ace of clubs on the bidding—so he came up with the brilliant idea of ducking the jack of hearts.

However, East viewed this play with suspicion. He knew that South had a singleton heart, since declarer would surely have covered the jack with the queen if he had void in hearts.

So, instead of letting the jack win the trick, East overtook it with the ace and returned the jack of clubs. As a result of this play, South lost three club tricks and went down one. East felt that if declarer wanted to keep him out of the lead by ducking the heart, this in itself was a good enough reason for him to take the lead.

If East had failed to overtake the jack, South would have made the contract. Declarer would have been able to establish a heart trick later by leading the king through the ace, and would have lost only two tricks.

Dear Abby

Love Is Shown In Many Ways

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I can't get that Father's Day column out of my mind. That is for the mother who sent you her 19-year-old son's letter in which he said, "If I turn out to be a father like my dad, I wish somebody would shoot me."

Only when your son has sons of his own will he appreciate what his father has done for him. I assume your son is not paying his own way through college. Few sons do.

I had the same type of father. He never played ball with me. He never cuddled me when I was young. Never talked with me, man-to-man. He never took me on trips, either. But he worked every day. And he paid the bills. And he put food on the table and clothes on my back, and shoes on my feet. And he quietly did without himself.

I used to feel resentment, too. But now I have sons of my own, and realize that there are many ways of showing love. And my father loved me no less for his inability to show it. One day that son will live to eat his words.

OLDER AND WISER

DEAR ABBY: The letter on Father's Day from the boy who was disappointed his father bothered me. Considering the thousands of boys who have had to grow up without fathers, I think this young man is lucky to have had even a part-time father. At least he's made a home for his family and has paid the bills. If the boy fears his younger brother will suffer from the absence of a father's love and guidance, why doesn't he spend more time being the older brother? Older brothers are usually adored and looked up to by the younger ones.

I have four sons, from 9 to 16. Their father has been in the state mental hospital since the oldest boy was eight years old, so it is almost as though they had no father at all. His mind is gone and he will be there the rest of his life. Yet the boys keep busy, help each other, help me, and I have never once heard any of them complain about how tough it is to be without a father.

MOTHER OF FOUR

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I read the letter from the college son to his mother, criticizing his father. The boy sounded like an over-protected, spoiled, sniveling brat, just looking for points against probably a hard-working, long suffering, devoted, introverted father. Who sent this kid to college? My husband is a quiet man, and our three sons adore him in a quiet way. They feel no necessity to drool over one another. One son is a newspaper man and the other two are engineers, and they all married wonderful girls. The boys turned out to be the kind fathers brag about, but my husband never bragged. My husband never took the boys hunting or fishing. In the summer he either was going to college (he is a school teacher) or working to supplement our income. He never wrote any of them a letter in his life. Yet they loved and respected each other and enjoyed a fine relationship. What we need today is more strong silent men who quietly rule their homes. Then no son will hope to be shot if he isn't taken fishing or to Disneyland. Honestly!

WICHITA WIFE

DEAR ABBY: Apropos the letter from the college boy who condemned his father for not being a "good" father:

I am willing to bet that if you were to ask one hundred successful, reasonably well-adjusted family men if their fathers ever played ball with them, took them on trips, or sat down and talked "man-to-man" with them, ninety-five would have to say no.

Decision Slated On Church Talks

Final decision on the time and place of the general conferences of both the Evangelical United Brethren Church and the Methodist Church will be made in late September, it was announced Friday by leaders from both churches.

The proposed merger of the two denominations is scheduled to be a major item of business at the Evangelical United Brethren Conference and the special session of the Methodist Conference was ordered especially for this purpose.

It is expected that, if possible, the two denominations will meet in the same city at the same time to facilitate legislative actions relating to the proposed merger.

Minister Honored

Winside—The Rev. Herman M. Hilpert of St. Paul's Lutheran Church has been honored by his congregation for 40 years of service. He has been at St. Paul's ever since 1924 when he graduated from Concordia Theological Seminary. Ceremonies included the dedication of a new $30,000 parsonage.

The Best Crowd to Follow . . Is the Crowd Going to Church.

"You must not follow a multitude to do evil; nor go with a multitude to prevent justice," Exo. 23:2. What do you see in a crowd? Kings and tyrants have seen riot, rebellion and bloodshed. Jesus saw helpless, oppressed humanity as sheep not having a shepherd. Great crowds always mean some kind of hunger. Don't criticize them, try to understand and help them. When the multitude was hungry, Jesus fed them; when they were confused, He taught them; when sick, He healed them; when in trouble, He helped them. Help your friends by inviting them to church.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's How To Work It

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example, A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you. . . . WADE LEADS 2ND HALF ATTACK

Chicago (AP) —Bill Wade threw two touchdown passes through the College All-Stars' porous air defense Friday night and scored once in a 28-17 victory for the Chicago Bears, who trailed at half time.

After the Collegians had excited the big crowd of 64,000 at Soldier Field by taking a 10-7 lead at the half, the defending champions of the National Football League took charge in the second half.

Charlie Taylor, a speedy runner and option passer from Arizona State, and George Mira, the fine quarterback from Miami Fla., thrilled the fans with their exciting play in this annual game sponsor[illegible] by the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.

Wade hit big Mike Ditka with a 13-yard TD pass in the second period, sneaked over from the one and connected with Gary Barnes for a 20-yard scoring play in the third. Ruby Bukich took over late in the game and tossed a 20-yard touchdown pass in the fourth period.

Dick Van Raaphorst of Ohio State, who joins the Cleveland Browns after the game, put the All-Stars on the scoreboard first with a 14-yard field goal in the second period.

After Wade's pitch to Ditka had given the [illegible] the le[illegible] temporarily, the Collegians came up with the most spectacular play of th[illegible] [illegible]t to go in front.

Mira had a long pass dropped by Pau' Warfield of Ohio State before he got a second chance when Billy Martin fumbled Joe Don Looney's punt and Taylor recovered on the Bears' 18.

Mira fumbled th ball momentarily as he dropped back but recovered quickly and pitched out to Taylor, a future Washington Redskin. The fleet former Arizona State ace sped to his right end and fired to Georgia Tech's Ted Davis in the end zone.

The All-Stars saw their lead disappear through errors and fumbles in the third quarter but got back in the scoring column in the final seconds when Mira connected with Taylor on a 5-yard pass at 14:34

The Bears played spotty ball as might have been expected for a pro team in its first exhibition game with a long season ahead. They lost the ball on a fumble once and they had two passes intercepted. Both came after Bukich replaced Wade.

Wade completed 15 of 23 for 217 yards and two touchdowns while Mira, who was a doubtful participant because of a strained muscle in his right arm pit, completed eight of 18 for 70 yards and the one score.

The crowd was with Mira, who once bobbed around among a mob of Bear defenders and still managed to make nine yards when he seemed sure to be thrown for a heavy loss.

In addition to throwing a TD pass and catching one, Taylor snared a 29-yard toss from Pete Beathard of Southern California in the second period, a spectacular one-handed catch. He also recovered two fumbles, one by the Bears and one by a teammate.

The Bears were two-touchdown favorites in the 31st of this series that now stands 29-9-2 in favor of the professionals. The All-Stars had won last year, upending the Green Bay Packers 20-17.

There was a dramatic movement before the game when the lights were dimmed and the big crowd stood silently for two minutes in respect to the memory of John Farrington and Willie Galimore, the two Bear players who were killed last week in an auto accident.

In memory of their former mates, the Bears wore black bands on their left arms. They will continue to wear the black during the regular season.

The Bears pierced the Stars' pass defense 287 yards but were outgained by the collegians on the ground 142 to 84 in net yardage. Taylor made 36 of those All-Star rushing yards in seven carries.

Jerry Richardson of West Texas State intercepted a Wade pass in the end zone in the first period and Paul Krause of Iowa and Mel Renfro of Oregon each grabbed one on Bukich.

Priscilla

"I don't know why it is, but they unerringly find my corn.

"Well it's just sheer agony.

"Of course, if there is anything I need it's more agony.

"My agonizing choices for Satutrday will be Major Kam in the second race and Load and Leave in the fifth race —both $2 to win."

Friday Aunt Priscilla somehow managed to pick two more losers leaving her $42.-60.

Chi Chi Leads

Chicago (AP)—Jaunty Chi Chi Rodriguez, shaking off a three-week tournament slump, shot a 69 in the Western Golf Open Friday to capture the 36-hole lead by one stroke over Arnold Palmer.

The 120-pound Puerto Rican coupled 35-34 against Tam O'Shanter's frayed 36-35—71 par and pulled up to the halfway mark in the $50,000-plus meet at 133-nine under regulation.

Billy Casper, who shared the first round lead with Chi Chi at 64, skidded to 35-36—71 for 135.

Typifying the disrespect for Tam's par was Casper's comment:

"It was among the worst rounds I've ever played. I missed seven greens and dropped only two good putts—a 10-footer for par on the eighth and a 20-footer for a birdie on 17."

Casper said after the first few holes he didn't know if he could continue.

"I was real sick from something I must have eaten," he said. "But my wife kept giving me salt tablets and soft drinks and I kept going."

Baltimore Recaptures AL Lead

New York (AP)—Steve Barber, with a late inning assist by Harvey Haddix, won his third straight over New York as the Baltimore Orioles blanked the Yankees 2-0 Friday night and recaptured the American League lead.

The victory lifted the Orioles one game ahead of the Yankees. Haddix relieved Barber with two out and two on in the seventh, ended the threat by striking out pinch hitter Phil Linz and checked the Yankees the rest of the way. Barber had pitched four-hit and three-hit victories in his last two appearances against the Yanks.

Brooks Robinson singled home the first Baltimore run in the first inning off loser Jim Bouton, 12-9.

Early Cushion Insures Triumph Over Borner

. . . 291 TOTAL TAKES TOURNEY

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Matt Taber chopped his way to a double-bogey finish for a four-over-par 76 in the final round of the Lincoln Men's City Tournament Friday at the Lincoln Country Club, but it was good enough to win the city title as the challengers faded right along with the champion.

The city championship was the second for Taber, who also won the title in 1962 before finishing back in the field as Charlie Borner took over last year.

Taber's 291 total for the tourney was three over par and three strokes better than Borner, whose runner-up total of 294 was the same figure with which he won a year ago.

Challengers Fade

With Taber shooting the four-over-par figure, either Tom Ludwick or Larry Romjue could have won with a par round and Borner, with a par could have tied. But none of the trio was able to approach par.

Taber's six-under-par 66 at Pioneers Thursday that gave him a three-stroke margin over Ludwick and Romjue and four strokes on Borner was clearly the turning point in the tourney.

The Lincoln lefty, who had pointed for the city crown after being forced to withdraw from the state tournament with a joint infection, had only to play it safe Friday and let the other golfers go after him.

Romjue Third

Romjue finished third with a 295 total while Ludwick and Phil Breitfelder tied for fourth at 299.

Taber made the nine-hole turn in 37 and had gained at least a stroke on all of the top five challengers.

Romjue hit a ball out of bounds on No. 9 to go four over par at the turn while Borner turned in 39 and Ludwick made the turn at six over with a 42.

With a five-stroke cushion on Borner, his closest competition, after 14 holes Friday, Taber went to his irons on the 15th tee to avoid any chance of flirting with the out of bounds fence on the right.

In The Trees

But he had to scramble on the hole regardless as his iron shot off the tee wound up in the trees to the right—just where he had tried not to place it. Matt chipped into the fairway and then two-putted for a bogey-five.

But he still held a four-stroke lead after Borner parred the hole and even after chopping his way to the double-bogey six on the final hole, he was still the winner by three strokes.

Ludwick, in second place at the start of the final round, saw his chances disappear when he hit a bad chip, then three putted for a double bog on the opening hole.

Putt Rims Cup

Borner watched a birdie putt rim the cup and jump away on No. 2 that took some of the starch from his game and when he hit into the trees for a bogey-five on No. 4 and hit a tee shot into the lake for a double-bogey-five on No. 5, the defending champion had considerable ground to make up.

But the eventual champion also double-bogeyed No. 5, hitting his tee shot over the green and chipping short on the return before two-putting.

When Matt three putted for a bogey on the next hole, Borner again trailed by only four.

But the 18-year-old youngster missed a two-foot par putt on No. 7 to take a bogey and when he missed a three-footer for a birdie on No. 8 and Matt two putted for a birdie, Taber had what amounted to an insurmountable lead.

Best Round

The best round of the day was shot by Tom Williamson who carded a one-under 71 to win a playoff from Phil White for the first flight title.

Other flight winners, all decided by playoffs, were Ernie Swan in the second, Curly Piontek in the third, Bob McVicker in the fourth, Alan Gregory in the fifth, George Bennett in the sixth, and Gene Quacienbush in the seventh.

The championship results:

'More Practice For Me,' Says City's New Champ

. . . BUT WIN WAS CALCULATED

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Lincoln's new city golf champion, Matt Taber, isn't headed for any more tournaments until he spends a few hours on the practice range.

"I played so bad today (Friday) that I don't even want to think about any more tournaments for awhile," the champion said moments after winning the title with a 76 at the Lincoln Country Club.

"I'm going back to the practice range and try to get my game in better shape," he continued.

Taber didn't even approach a par figure Friday, but he wasn't particularly going for a par round.

"I just figured I could play along and win with a 73 or 74," he explained. "I wasn't going to start going for the pin until someone got hot. If someone had started to press me, then I would have had to start charging the pins." No one pressed him.

Taber even went down to an iron on the 15th tee.

"I figured the only way I could lose it at that point was to hit some balls out of bounds," he noted, "And I wasn't about to do that."

The two-time champion admitted that he had c[illegible] trated for the past couple of weeks on getting ready for the tournament.

"After playing so badly last year, I was [illegible]ed to make up for it this year," he said. "Actually I won it yesterday (Thursday) with that 66 at Pioneers.

"I wasn't playing good at all today. I putted badly and I just wasn't hitting the ball good."

But Matt wasn't the only golfer to play badly.

Defending champion Charlie Borner showed the same concern.

"I just couldn't [illegible]t it going," he noted. "Just like that putt on No. 2."

Borner had a six-foot birdie putt that hit the cup, rimmed it and then dropped away.

"I thought it was in," he said. "Ed (Taber, his playing partner) also thought it was in becaus he said 'nice putt' as it approached the hole. But it didn't stay down."

Phillies Acquire Thomas As "Pennant Insurance"

Philadelphia (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies acquired veteran power hitter Frank Thomas from the New York Mets Friday for three minor leaguers in a deal the Phils' brass views as "pennant insurance."

The Phils gave up Wayne Graham, a .305 hitting outfielder-third baseman with Arkansas in the Pacific Coast League, and two other players to be delivered by Aug. 12 and Oct. 31.

General Manager John Quinn is no stranger to this game of so-called pennant insurance deals. The boss of the National League-leading Phillies acquired Red Schoendienst for Milwaukee in 1957 from the New York Giants and the slick infielder sparked the Braves to the pennant.

Now he finds his Phillies in vital need of right-handed power to thwart southpaw pitching that has been beating the predominantly left-handed hitting Phils in recent weeks. So, he reached out and grabbed Thomas, a right-handed slugger who has hit 275 career home runs.

There have been other notable cases of mid-or-late-season acquisitions that have meant pennant. The New York Yankees are past masters of this maneuver. They did it in 1949 when they got Johnny Mize from the Giants, and in 1951 when they acquired pitcher Johnny Sain from the Boston Braves.

Other examples include Ted Kluszewski, picked up on waivers in 1958 by the Chicago White Sox from Pittsburgh. He hit .291 in the last 31 games, and belted two home runs and drove home five in the first game of the World Series. In 1945, the Chicago Cubs caused a furor when they got pitcher Hank Borowy from the Yankees. Borowy went on to win 11 of 13 decisions and help the Cubs win the pennant.

In addition to the 27-year-old Graham, who has hit 11 home runs and batted in 56 runs for Arkansas, the Mets apparently will get pitcher Gary Kroll, a right-hander the Phillies have placed on waivers to make room for Thomas. Kroll appears to be the player marked for Aug. 12 delivery.

The Phillies long have coveted Thomas, whom Manager Gene Mauch is expected to use as an outfielder-first baseman against left-handed pitching. The 35-year-old veteran now is in his 12th year of major league play.

Thomas, who played with Pittsburgh, the Cubs, Cincinnati and Milwaukee before the Mets, currently is hitting .254 with three home runs and 19 RBI's in 60 games. However, he missed much of the season because of injuries and sickness and only recently has been rounding into form.

Thomas probably will play immediately for the Phils and against the club he just left. The Mets opened a series here Friday night and their starting pitcher was a left-hander, Al Jackson.

Devil's Rose Storms To New Record

Kay Farnum's Devil's Rose blitzed to her fourth win at the Nebraska State Fairgrounds Friday, and she did it in convincing fashion.

The 6-year-old mare captured the seventh race, the featured Sower's Club Purse at a distance of one mile and one sixteenth, in record-smashing time of 1:47 3/5. It marked the fourth win in as many outings for the spirited mare since arriving on the race scene.

Fans were returned $9.80, $5.40 and $3.20 for the Devil Rose victory, $12.20 and $7.00 for place tickets on Bernolee, and $4.00 for the show performance of Merci Kale.

Baby Tonight upset the field in the first race to get the daily double of $80.40 well on its way. Twilight Threat won the second race in completing the combination.

The Sport Writer's Handicap heads today's action. Francis McDonald's Lucky J. A., holder of the Lincoln Course record at 1:10.0, draws top weight among the seven horse field in the eighth race.

Hastings Eyes Big Gate At Legion World Series

. . . FOLLOWING ISLANDER WIN

With nearby Grand Island winning the state championship, Hastings received a bonus which should boost attendance in the seven-state regional American Legion Junior baseball tourney Aug. 15-20.

The scrappy young Grand Island team will take on the Kansas champions in the last of three games Saturday. Other state champions bidding for spots in the national tournament in Little Rock, Ark., come from North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Oklahoma and Minnesota.

Director of the Hastings tournament is John Kahler of Lincoln, a member of the state American Legion athletic committee.

Like the Nebraska state tourney, the regional is a double elimination affair.

First round parings: . . . .

Saturday, Aug. 15
1:30 p.m.—North Dakota v. South Dakota.
5:00 p.m.—Iowa v. Oklahoma.
8:00 p.m.—Kansas v. Nebraska.
Sunday, Aug. 16
1:30 p.m.—North Dakota-South Dakota loser v. Iowa-Oklahoma loser.
5:00 p.m.—North Dakota-South Dakota winner v. Iowa-Oklahoma winner.
8:00 p.m.—Minnesota v. Kansas-Nebraska winner.

Traded Thomas Haunts N.Y. Mets

Philadelphia (AP) — Frank Thomas, an original New York Met who was traded to the Philadelphia Phillies before the game, socked a double and single and batted in two runs in his debut with the Phils Friday night in a 9-4 victory over the Mets.

Sent to the Phillies on waivers for three minor league players, Thomas also started a double play in the seventh after the Phils had rallied for four runs in the sixth to break open a 4-4 game.

Maloney's Feats Power Cincinnati

Cincinnati (AP)—Jim Maloney struck out 12 men in six innings and drove in a run before his arm stiffened up Friday night, and the Cincinnati Reds went on to a 5-3 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The loss dropped the Giants 2½ games behind the National League leading Phillies, who whipped the New York Mets 9-4. Third place Cincinnati remained four games back.

Class B Tourney Is Set

Aurora—The field has been completed for the Class B state American Legion Junior and Midget baseball tournaments beginning Sunday at Aurora.

Four teams qualified in each division for the three-day tournament.

The Sunday opener matches Midget teams from Chadron and Aurora at 6 p.m. The Sunday Junior contest pits Ralston against Crete at 8 p.m.

First round play continues Monday with Hooper meeting Syracuse in the Midget division at 6 p.m. and St. Paul tangling with Grant in the Junior division at 8 p.m.

Championship games are slated for 6 and 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Co-directors of the state meet are Charles Whitney and Wayne Shaneyfielt of Aurora.

Umpires appointed by the state athletic committee are Richard Sealey, Robert Crawford, Art Trieschman, Floyd Bagby and Don Norberg.

Husker Press Box Labeled As Worst

Chicago — The Football Writers of America placed the University of Nebraska's press box at Memorial Stadium on its "worst list" at its annual meeting here Friday.

Also placed on the list, made up of boxes which are inadequate for servicing the communications media, was the University of California, Holy Cross, Minnesota, Illinois, Crump Stadium in Memphis, Tenn., and Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

Nebraska sports information director Don Bryant said: "Plans are being made to remodel and expand our press box. It is on the athletic department agenda and we hope to have it completed for the 1965 football season."

Bryant said that the box would probably be left as it is for this year.

Also at the meeting, the officials of the National Sports Casters and Sports Writers Association from Salsbury, S.C., made a presentation of plans for a media hall of fame. Lincoln radio and television broadcaster Bob Zenner is on the board of directors of the association.

The guest speaker at the association meeting was Darrel Royal, head football coach of national champion Texas.

Senators Survive Angel Rally, 4-3

Los Angeles (AP) — Reliever Ron Kline checked a three-run uprising in the ninth inning Friday night, preserving the Washington Senators' 4-3 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

Kline replaced Senator starter Claude Osteen with two on, none out and a 2-0 count on the Angels' Bob Perry. He completed the walk to Perry and gave up a two-run single to Bob Rodgers but got Vic Power to hit into a double play as the third run scored and then retired Lennie Green to end the game.

Hefty Hitting Pushes Indians To Double Win

. . . SWEEP TWINS

Cleveland (AP)— The Cleveland Indians swept a doubleheader from the Minnesota Twins Friday night, taking the first game 10-4 as Woodie Held and Joe Azcue hammered two-run homers and copping the second 8-2 behind Larry Brown's timely hitting.

The sweep gave Cleveland eight victories in the last 10 games.

A five-run rally in the fifth inning of the first game provided rookie Luis Tiant with all the runs he needed. Held cracked his homer in the six-hit outburst.

Tiant, 4-1, checked the Twins on five hits, including Tony Oliva's two-run homer and Earl Battey's solo blast.

Twins' third baseman Rich Rollins left the game in the third inning after being spiked while putting a tag on Held. He needed seven stitches and is expected to be out three days. The Indians collected 10 hits off five Minnesota pitchers. Starter Dick Stigman was the loser.

Brown drove in three runs in the nightcap.

He singled in a run in the second inning after Max Alvis walked and John Romano singled.

The Indians scored three runs in the fourth. The loaded the bases when Alvis walked, Fred Whitfield singled and Jimmie Hall dropped Romano's fly ball. One run scored on an infield out before Brown delivered a two-run single.

Hall hit his 19th home run, in the sixth, after Harmon Killebrew singled, cutting the Indians' lead to 5-2. The homer came off Pedro Ramos, who relieved Sam McDowell when the Cleveland starter's arm tightened in the fourth.

Romano's squeeze bunt in the fifth scored another Cleveland run and the Indians added three more in the eighth on two, a walk, fielder's choice and sacrifice fly.

Tigers HR's Bomb K.C.

Detroit (AP)—George Thomas and Bill Freehan hit back-to-back homers in the eighth inning and Phil Regan scattered eight hits as the Detroit Tigers beat Kansas City Friday night 5-2 for their fourth straight victory. Manny Jimenez got four of the hits off Regan.

It was the first victory for Regan since July 3 and only his fifth of the season. He was a 15-game winner for the Tigers last season.

Gates Brown hit a third homer for the Tigers that accounted for the first run of the game in the second inning. Detroit got two more runs in the third on four singles.

Kansas City scored in the third inning on a homer by Burt Campaneris and in the fifth on Jimenez's single that brought Ed Charles home.

Cards Win, 4-0

St. Louis (AP) — Bill White's 15th homer and Lou Brock's two-run single backed up Curt Simmons' strong pitching Friday night as the St. Louis Cardinals stretched their winning streak to three games by beating the Houston Colts, 4-0.

White, on a batting rampage since he borrowed teammate Carl Warwicke's lighter bat, extended his hitting streak to 15 games with his first-inning homer.

Singles by Mike Shannon and Tim McCarver and a wild pitch by Skinny Brown preceded Brock's key single in the fifth inning.

In the seventh, McCarver singled for the third time, advanced on a sacrifice and an infield out and scored on Claude Raymond's wild pitch.

Simmons scattered five singles, boosting his season record to 12-8. Brown has won two and lost 10.

Simmons set down the first 10 Colts in order before nicking Nellie Fox with a pitch in the fourth. Fox advanced to second on the first of Joe Gaines' two singles. The only other Colt to reach second was Al Spangler, who singled in the eighth and moved up on a walk to Fox—the only one allowed by Simmons, who pitched the 33rd shutout of his career.

Governor Suggests 'Centennial Game'

. . . ST. LOUIS CARDS INVITED

Governor Morrison has suggested a pre-season exhibition baseball game be staged in Omaha between major league clubs in 1967, the Nebraska Centennial Year.

In a letter to Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinal Vice President, Morrison said such a contest could draw as many as 20,000 fans. It would be held in Rosenblatt Stadium.

The Governor proposed that the Cardinals be one team, and either the Philadelphia Phillies or Chicago Cubs the other.

"As you may know," the Governor wrote Musial "Grover Cleveland Alexander (a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame) was a Nebraskan who achieved great fame as a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs and the Philadelphia Phillies.

"So I have this idea it might be possible to arrange a pre-season game in Omaha between the Cardinals and either the Cubs or Phillies."

J. Earl Wood of Alliance had first suggested to the Governor that the state should attempt to arrange such a game. Wood recommended receipts from the game go to promote youth baseball programs in Nebraska.

Morrison sent copies of his letter to Musial to State Centennial Commission Executive Director Don Shriner of Lincoln, and to Don Bryant of Lincoln, University of Nebraska Sports Information Director and Chairman of the Special Centennial Sports Committee.

Ray Herbert Harasses Red Sox For 2-0 Win As White Sox End Streak

Chicago (AP) — Ray Herbert blanked the Boston Red Sox on five hits and drove in both of the game's runs Friday in helping the Chicago White Sox snap a three-game losing streak with a 2-0 victory.

A veteran right-hander, who lost a month this season while on the disabled list, collected his fifth victory against three losses. Ed Connolly suffered the loss, his eighth against two victories and his fourth to Chicago.

Herbert's decisive blow came in the sixth when Ron Hansen opened with a single and after two were out, Jerry McNertney singled Hansen to second. Herbert then lined a single to left, scoring Hansen.

The pitcher delivered the other run in the eighth with a squeeze bunt that brought home Hansen.

Boston had a scoring opportunity in the fourth when Eddie Bressoud doubled and Carl Yastrzemski walked. But Dick Stuart lined into a double play and Yastrzemski was cut down on an attempted steal.

Fine running catches by outfielder Mike Hershberger and Floyd Robinson in the seventh on well-hit balls by Tony Horton and Lee Thomas helped Herbert.

The victory was Chicago's 10th in 12 games with Boston.

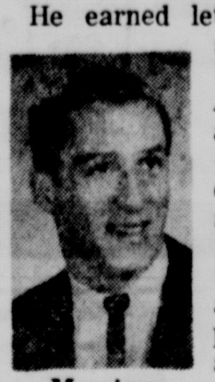
Top-Seeded Jeff Brown Moves Into Semifinals

Minneapolis (AP) — Top seeded Jeff Brown of Carmichael, Calif. and fourth-seeded Dean Penero moved into the junior men's finals in the 11th Jaycee international junior tennis tournament Friday.

Brown defeated Tom Karp of Los Angeles 6-1, 2-6, 6-4. Penero, of Stockton, Calif., ousted second-seeded Armistead Neely of Tampa, Fla. 8-6, 6-2. Brown and Penero meet in the finals at noon Saturday.

Shrine Profiles

Omaha North's Dennis Morrison is one of several versatile athletes on the North Shrine Bowl roster.



Morrison

He earned letters in four sports in high school. A football and basketball standout, he switched from track to baseball as a spring pastime as a senior. He scored in the high jump in the state meet as a junior.

Morrison is the only Omaha North representative on the North roster.

The 6-0, 185-pound athlete is expected to handle part of the quarterbacking dutits for the Yankees.

Cubs Sweep Pirate Series

Pittsburgh (AP)—The Chicago Cubs swept a twi-night doubleheader from the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday, beating them 7-3 and a 14-hit attack in the opener, and 4-3 in the second game despite three Pirate home runs.

It was Pittsburgh's sixth double defeat this season.

Ernie Broglio got the victory in the second game, his sixth against nine defeats, although Bobby Shantz came on and got the last out.

Look Sports Editor Guilty Of Contempt

New York (AP) — Tim Cohane, sports editor of Look Magazine, was found guilty of contempt of court Friday for refusing to answer questions about an article he wrote for the magazine.

Federal District Court Judge Charles H. Tenney gave him a 10-day sentence, but stayed execution until next Wednesday. Cohane can purge himself of the term by answering the questions in the meantime. Cohane was released without bail.

Pro Football Exhibition Season Starts Saturday

By Associated Press

The pro football exhibition season shifts into high gear this weekend with seven games Saturday night and three Sunday afternoon.

The actual kickoff of the exhibition prelude to what promises to be exciting regular seasons in the National and American Football Leagues came Friday night at Chicago.

That was the annual All-Star game at Soldier Field which pitted the NFL champion Chicago Bears against the Chicago All-Stars.

The return to action by Paul Hornung, star Green Bay halfback after one year's suspension for betting on games, highlights the weekend. He will play with the Packers against the St. Louis Cardinals at New Orleans Saturday night.

Writers Select Mosher To Board

Chicago — Curt Mosher, sports editor of The Lincoln Journal, was named to a two year term on the board of directors of the National Football Writers of America at their annual meeting here Friday.

Jack Murphy, 41-year-old sports editor of the San Diego Union, was named the association's new president, succeeding Blackie Sherrod, sports editor of the Dallas Times-Herald.

Maury White of the Des Moines Register submitted his resignation as secretary-treasurer and was succeeded by Bert McGrane.

Four Georgia Klansmen Charged With Murder

Athens, Ga. (UPI) — Georgia filed murder charges Friday against four Ku Klux Klansmen arrested by the FBI for the July 11 nightrider slaying of a Washington, D.C., Negro educator.

Gov. Carl Sanders made clear the state would act decisively in the case.

The victim in the slaying was Lemuel A. Penn, 48, a lieutenant colonel in the Army Reserve and director of adult and vocational training in Washington, D.C., schools.

Foggy Road

He and two other Negro officers were returning home from summer Army training at Ft. Benning, Ga., when two shotgun blasts were fired into their car along a dark, foggy road near Colbert, Ga.

Those charged in the crime are James Lackey, 29, a service station attendant; Joseph Howard Sims, 41, a machinist; Cecil William Myers, 25, a textile worker, and Herbert Guest, 37, a garage operator.

U.S. Commissioner Girard Hawkins said Lackey confessed to participating in the shooting and implicated the other three.

All were held without bond in the Clarke County Jail at Athens.

May Turn Evidence

James E. Hudson, an attorney who represents all of the defendants except Lackey, indicated Lackey may turn state's evidence against the other three.

Lackey and Guest were being held together in one cell and the other two defendants were in another part of the jail.

TOP POLE DIES

President Alexander Zawadski of Poland died Friday of cancer. He was 65. Although a devoted and trusted Communist, Zawadski, son of a coal miner, was not regarded as a powerful figure in Poland. He was often ill and unable to bear heavy burdens of office. Edward Ochab, 58, Politburo member and vice chairman of the State Council, was rated his most likely successor.

Gun Unfound; Arrests In Killing Of 3 Delayed

Jackson, Miss. (UPI) — Failure thus far to find a weapon matching bullets removed from the bodies of three slain civil rights workers was reported Friday to be holding up arrests of several suspects.

The FBI, following its usual custom, would say nothing officially, either here, in Washington or at Philadelphia, Miss., where a search of a rural farm is still in progress.

The body of one of the victims, Andrew Goodman, 24-year-old white New Yorker, was sent home by jet Friday morning—a speedy final journey in contrast to the youth's leisurely trip south in a station wagon in early June to participate in the controversial "Mississippi Project."

Dusty Hill Grave

Another of the integrationists, 22-year-old James Chaney, a Negro, was buried on a dusty hill south of his home in nearby Meridan.

Only about 15 mourners watched his casket lowered into the red clay. His mother sobbed quietly and his 12-year-old brother Ben moaned hysterically, "I want my brother."

Shortly after the funeral, Mrs. Chaney's lawyer issued a statement saying that a second autopsy on Chaney's body, conducted privately at the request of his mother, had resulted in findings "beyond anything" yet reported.

He refused to elaborate and Mrs. Chaney said she had not been told of the results of the examination.

The official report on the state autopsies had not been released. It has been reported that the autopsies revealed the men were shot but not mutilated.

No efforts had been made by the family of Michael Schwerner, 24, of New York, to claim his body. The remains of all the victims have been undergoing laboratory tests in Jackson.

Schwerner, white, was one of the leaders in the Mississippi Project, an effort to help Negroes register for voting and to upgrade their education and citizenship. He and Chaney were staff members of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). Goodman was a summer project volunteer.

U.N. INVITES 2 VIET REGIMES TO DEBATE

United Nations, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council Friday invited both North and South Viet Nam to take part in debate on the new Southeast Asia crisis. Then it listened to Czechoslovakia and the United States exchange bitter charges of events in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Jiri Hajek, the Czechoslovak delegate, accused the United States of exercising "big stick, gunboat" policy in taking military reprisals against North Viet Nam for attacks on U.S. vessels. He said the United States was hasty in its counteraction.

U.S. Ambassador Adlaie E. Stevenson responded that Hajec was echoing both Hanoi and the Communist regime in Peiking in accusing the United States of aggression.

"How long do we have to wait—until one of our ships are sunk with all of its incalcuable consequences?" Stevenson asked.

He said safeguarding peace and security and the independence of Southeast Asia "is the reason—and the only reason—that there is any United States presence in that area."

Platon D. Morozov, the Soviet delegate, supported Hajek with a declaration that the "plea of self-defense by the United States is unfounded and unjustified."

Roger Seydoux, the French delegate, asserted that only a political solution can end the crisis in Southeast Asia. He repeated France's call for a new conference "between the interested power to bring about such developments."

The exchanges took place after the council approved invitations to North and South Viet Nam that left the door open for both sides to submit statements instead of sending delegates to appear in person.

This raised the prospect that the council would shelve further debate unless there are new developments in Southeast Asia.

NU Receives Scholarship, Loan Fund

A $25,000 endowed fund for scholarships and student loans has been established in the University of Nebraska Foundation as a memorial to the late J. Stewart Elliott of Beatrice by his widow.

Elliott, who died in 1960, was senior vice president of the Beatrice National Bank and a director of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company. A university graduate, he served for more than 20 years as a trustee and executive board member of the University Foundation and in 1957 received the Distinguished Service Award from the university and its alumni association.

Mrs. Martha C. Elliott of Beatrice, in establishing the memorial, specified that preference in its use be given to graduates of Beatrice high school who are pursuing study in the University's School of Journalism.

Harry R. Haynie, Foundation President, estimated that the fund will provide approximately $1,000 a year in scholarships and loans.

Corps Outlines Flooding Study

. . . FOR FLOOD PLAINS

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

A Corps of Engineers preliminary study of the flood plains of Salt Creek, Haines Branch and Beal's Slough in the Lincoln area was outlined Friday before the Nebraska State Soil and Water Conservation Commission.

Commission Secretary Warren Fairchild said Lincoln had requested the flood plain study in connection with a possible flood plain zoning ordinance for the city.

The Corps and commission said the preliminary study must be reviewed by the Corps' higher echelons before its public release in final form.

It was estimated a final report will not be available for "three or four months."

Frequency

A Corps engineer said the study would outline the flood plain limits of the three creeks under flood conditions of 25, 50 and 100 year frequency.

He said the study reflects the flood protection that is available or will be available from the Corps of Engineer dams in the Lincoln area and the Salt Creek channel improvements.

City officials, in requesting that the flood study be made, have said the information is needed before flood plain zoning can be adopted by the city.

The officials have also indicated that similar studies may be needed for Antelope, Dead Man's Run and Stevens Creek before such legislation is possible.

The Corps spokesman said the study would show which areas are subject to flooding hazards and at what frequency.

When the report is released, the public and the city will have the technical information needed to determine the proper land uses for the areas involved.

No Information

Recently, city officials questioned whether a new residential subdivision wasn't pushing into a flood plain area, but had no technical information available upon which to base disapproval of residential zoning because of the potential flood hazard.

If highly-urbanized developments are permitted in flood plain areas, the city may be called upon later to spend thousands of dollars to provide flood protection structures for these urban developments.

Mrs. Ollendorf Again Head Of Lutherans

Fremont (AP) — Mrs. Fred Ollendorf of Leigh was reelected president of Nebraska Lutheran Church Women of the Lutheran Church in America Friday.

Along with other officers named she will serve a two-year term at the head of the organization which now has 165 chapters in Nebraska.

The group concluded its annual convention in Fremont Friday.

Mrs. Earl High of Bertrand was re-elected vice president and Miss Minnie Asche of Columbus was elected secretary. Mrs. Melvin Beermann of Dakota City was re-elected treasurer.

The convention adopted a budget of $55,000 for the coming year and received two new organizations into membership. One is at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Omaha and the other at St. John's Shell Creek Church in Columbus.

Addressing the 600 delegates Friday, Mrs. Edmund G. Price of Pittsburgh, Pa., general president, said "our times demand men and women of decision who will walk with dignity and courage, loyal to the best in the worst times, steadfast in their faith."

Mrs. Price said church leadership involves vision, decision, knowledge, passion, sacrifice, self-effacement and loneliness. Most difficult to practice, she said, is self-effacement. She said a good leader is not a woman who seeks prominence but one who seeks results.

Hy-Gain Employees Vote 'No' To Union

The employes of the Hy-Gain Antenna Products Co. on U.S. 6 voted by a 2 to 1 majority Friday against joining the United Rubber Workers Union.

The election was conducted by the National Labor Relations Board.

Havelock Shops Will Add 75 Workers For Big Order

The Burlington Railroad's Havelock shops in Lincoln plan to add 75 employes to its current work force of 625.

B. H. Barrett, Havelock superintendent, said Friday the increase is needed to handle the extra 200 freight car order given the shops Thursday by the Chicago Burlington office.

Already manufacturing 1,150 cars, the Havelock shops are busy with the second largest car order in their history.

The 200 additional boxcars are part of a supplemental order for 650 under a contract totaling $9.6 million.

2 Watershed Applications Boost Total

The application for planning assistance on two additional watersheds to the Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Commission increased to 73 the number of such applications in the state.

Requesting assistance at the Friday meeting of the Commission was the Wolfe-Wildcat Watershed of Gage County and the Skull Creek Watershed of Butler County.

The Wolfe-Wildcat request completed the watershed planning for Gate County with Gage becoming the first county to be blanketed by watersheds, said spokesmen for the Nebraska Soil and Water Commission.

Ag College Appoints Poultry Specialist

Dr. John Adams, chairman of the University of Nebraska department of poultry science, announced Friday the appointment of Earl W. Gleaves, Stillwater, Okla., to the position of extension poultry specialist.

Gleaves earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Oklahoma State University and is a candidate this month for his doctorate in animal nutrition this month.

McNamara Clarifies LBJ's Timing

Washington (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara Friday issued a statement clarifying the timing of President Johnson's announcement of the Navy raid on North Viet Nam, saying the news was released only after the U.S. planes were spotted by Communist radar.

McNamara's statement followed a critical speech by Rep. Ed Foreman, R-Tex., who said there was an hour and a half lapse between the time Johnson made his announcement and the first wave of the carrier planes reached their targets.

Johnson went on the air at 9:36 p.m. CST Tuesday. The first air strike was made at 11:15 p.m. CST Tuesday, according to the Pentagon.

Foreman said that what Johnson did was give the Communists a better warning than they could get from their radar. "What kind of responsibility is it when the President of the United States appears on the television networks" to tell "one hour and a half ahead that our planes are coming?"

Reasons

McNamara said the announcement of the attack at 9:40 p.m. CST was made for these reasons:

—By then, the U.S. Navy aircraft had been in the air for about one hour.

—"Hanoi, through its radar, had then received indications of the attack." Hanoi is the capital of North Viet Nam.

—There was not enough time left for the North Vietnamese to move their torpedo boats before the planes would be over the target.

—The statement said it was important that the American people learn from their President how the attacks on the two destroyers were being answered before they heard it from North Viet Nam.

—It was "desirable that the North Vietnamese government and others be told as soon as possible the character of the attack." At this point, McNamara quoted Johnson's statement that the raid "for the present will be limited and fitting."

'Trigger-Happy'

"We've heard a lot about trigger-happy irresponsibility lately," Foreman said, using critical terms used by some against the Republican presidential nominee, Sen. Barry M. Goldwater.

"But what kind of responsibility is this," he asked, "when the President goes on radio and TV and tells them (the Communists) one hour and a half in advance that the air strike is coming?"

White House Press Secretary George E. Reedy told newsmen:

"The President made his announcement after he was informed by the secretary of defense that the planes had left the carriers."

Johnson began his brief talk Tuesday night at 9:36 p.m. A Defense Department summary indicated subsequently that the time of the actual attack was 11:15 p.m.

Red Protest On Alleged Air Buzzing

Moscow (UPI) — The Soviet Union charged in a protest note disclosed Friday that U.S. Air Force planes have been buzzing Soviet ships in international waters around the world. It warned such actions "can lead to serious consequences."

The Kremlin note also charged that a U.S. warship maneuvered for more than three hours July 21 around the Soviet passenger ship Gruzia as it sailed toward Cuba.

The American warship, the note said "not only obstructed the progress of the Gruzia but also created danger of collision, jeopardizing the lives of the passengers."

(In Washington, the State Department acknowleged that it had received the buzzing protest. Press Officer Robert J. McClosky said the allegations "were being investigated" and that the United States would reply to the note.)

The Soviet note handed to the U.S. embassy demanded that the U.S. government halt the alleged buzzing which it called "dangerous and provocative."

It said Soviet passenger ships and freighters had been buzzed by American aircraft in the Atlantic and the Pacific, the Mediterranean, the North Sea "and other seas."

The official Soviet Tass news agency disclosed the protest note and said it had been delivered to U.S. diplomatic authorities here Monday.

NEBRASKANS BEING HELD IN THE CONGO

New York (UPI)—The Rev. and Mrs. Douglas L. Corwder and their two children, of Randolph, Neb., are being held under house arrest at a Methodist mission in the central Congo, the Methodist Board of Missions said Thursday.

Three other American missionaries and their families are also being held.

One Methodist missionary, The Rev. Burleigh A. Law Jr., 45, of Tallahassee, Fla., was killed Tuesday.

An evangelist and construction supervisor, he had been in the Congo since 1950.

Red Journal Charges Mao Would Kill Millions To End Capitalism

London (UPI)—The official journal of the international Communist movement reaching London Friday charged that Red Chinese leader Mao Tze-tung would be willing to have 900 million people slaughtered in a war to destroy capitalism and attain a new Peking-type civilization.

In the view of the Peking leadership, the journal said, hundreds of millions of men, women and children would perish to serve as "the manure of history to fertilize the soil of a new civilization."

The charge was contained in the current issue of the World Marxist Review, published in Prague, Czechoslovakia, in 18 languages. The Chinese edition has been dropped since the dispute between Moscow and Peking.

The charges in the Moscow-controlled publication formed part of a major Kremlin retort to Peking's hard-line communism and especially to Mao's personal philosophy.

They took on added significance against the backdrop of the current crisis in Southeast Asia.

The study described Mao's reflections on the specific question of war as running along this lines:

"War will bring appalling misfortune. Probably 900 million people will perish. But misfortune contains within itself good fortune."

The journal said: "Comment on this incredible statement would be superfluous, but it prompts the question: Did Mao bother to ask any of the 900 million people whether they wanted to die, whether they agreed to become the manure of history to fertilize the soil for a new civilization?"

The journal accused the Chinese rulers of using "political blackmail, pure and simple." It reminded them of Lenin's warning:

"The greatest danger, perhaps the only danger that confronts a genuine revolutionary is exaggeration of revolutionariness, forgetting the limits and conditions in which revolutionary methods are appropriate."

PLAYING 'FOOTSIE' WITH JUSTICE

Despite having a workman draped around her shoulder, this piece of statuary, representing justice, remained aloof while getting her back scrubbed. The statue, located outside the Federal Building in Indianapolis, is undergoing a cleanup along with three of her "friends."

GOP Drive Calls For $10 Members

Nebraska Republicans have begun a statewide drive to solicit "sustaining members" of the party.

Membership requires a contribution of $10 or more annually to the party treasury.

State GOP Executive Secretary Jack Schuetz of Lincoln said the reception thus far has been "tremendous," with responses from each of the 93 counties.

The letter requesting memberships was mailed by Schuetz and GOP State Finance and Budget Chairman John Riddell of York.

Grains Finish Mostly Firm

Chicago (AP) — The grain futures market worked its way out of early weakness Friday and finished mostly firm on the Board of Trade.

Soybeans, the broadest gainer as usual, closed with advances of almost two cents a bushel after profit cashing near the close had pared prices somewhat. All other commodities were only fractions either way from previous closes.

Wheat was ½ cent a bushel higher to ⅛ lower at the close, September new grade $1.41⅜-¼; corn ⅛ higher to ¼ lower, September $1.19⅜-¼; oats ⅛-½ lower, September 63⅜ cents; rye ⅛-⅜ higher, September $1.26¾; soybeans 1⅛-1¾ higher, August $2.52¾-53.

Hart's Ram Wins Show Sweepstakes

A Suffolk ram owned by Harry Hart of Cozad was named "sweepstakes ram" at the 28th annual Nebraska Sheep Day Show and Sale here Friday at the Nebraska State Fairgrounds.

In the afternoon sale, the top ram sold for $200 and was purchased by John Horne of Exeter. Approximately 300-400 people attended the show and sale.

The Suffolk was the first of its breed to capture top honors at the Sheep Day Show. The Hart ram was chosen from a field of 101 rams. No reserve champion was named.

Hart has been the owner of three previous sweeptstakes rams, all Hampshires in 1956, 1958, and 1959. He retired the travelling trophy in 1959. Hart has been a sheep breeder for the past 15 years.

Other high ram placings, by breed, were as follows:

HAMPSHIRE: D. V. Spohn, Superior, first and second.

SHROPSHIRE: John G. Eberspacher Seward, First; D. V. Spohn, Superior, second.

SUFFOLK: Harry Hart, Cozad, first; Dewey J. Carr, Elgin, second.

SOUTHDOWN: Harold Eberspacher, Beaver Crossing, first; Reinmiller Brothers, Staplehurst second.

CORRIEDALE: Theodore Rowe, Cozad, first and second.

CHEVIOT: John Skinner, Herman, first and second.

The results of the ewe classes were:

SUFFOLK: Dewey Carr, Elgin, first and second.

SOUTHDOWN: Reinmiller Brothers, Staplehurst, first and second.

CORRIEDALE: Theodore Rowe, Cozad first.

CHEVIOT: William J. Thell, Omaha, first and second.

Recovery Is Sizable In Stock Mart

New York (AP) — Fear of a broadening international crisis subsided in Wall Street Friday and the stock market made a sizable recovery of Thursday's losses.

Trading however, dwindled to the slowest pace in a year, reflecting continued caution in the investment community.

Volume was 3.19 million shares compared with 3.94 million Thursday.

The Dow Jones industrial average advanced 5.76 to 829.16.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks gained 1.6 at 314.3 with industrials up 3.0, rails up .8 and utilities up .3.

Of 1,319 issues traded, 659 rose and 381 fell. New highs and new lows for the year were equal at 17 each.

Eleven of the 15 most active stocks rose, three fell and Ford was unchanged.

There were no surprises among the trading favorites and the session was dull and predictable, with prices higher from the start.

The airlines, steels, coppers and tobaccos produced a string of fractional gains.

The aerospace defense stocks, down Thursday despite the jittery international atmosphere, recovered modestly.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange worked generally higher. Volume was 1.11 million shares compared with 1.16 million Thursday.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds were mixed.

Conferees To Consider Lincoln Plan

Washington (AP)—A request for funds by the General Services Administration to acquiare sites and prepare plans for a new federal building in Lincoln, Neb., will be considered by a House-Senate Conference Committee.

The Lincoln project is among 43 new federal buildings in 25 states to get committee consideration.

The court house and office building would cost $2,100,000.

The House allowed no money for the work while the Senate voted $33.2 million.

The money is contained in the independent offices appropriation bill for the year that started July 1. The conference committee will resolve differences in the Senate and House versions.

President Johnson earlier in the year recommended that Congress appropriate $29.5 million for site acquisition and planning. But the House Appropriations Committee said planning for the buildings were getting too far ahead of construction and it disallowed the item. The House concurred.

But the Senate Appropriations Committees not only restored the entire $29.5 million but added two additional projects—involving $1.6 million for Shreveport, La., and $2.1 million for Lincoln. The Senate backed its committee.

Bike-Car Crash Hurts Boy, 11

Jerry Kucera, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Kucera of 1433 Meadowdale Drive, received a bruised left knee Friday afternoon when the bike he was riding collided with a car driven by Donald J. Kelly, 30, of 2201 No. 51st.

Kelly was going west on a drive on the south of Gateway Shopping Center when Jerry was struck. Jerry was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, treated, and released.

Two Daughters Of Judge Slain

. . . ACCUSED KILLER IN ROOM

Jackson, Wyo. (AP) — Two young daughters of an Illinois Circuit Court judge were raped and then slain as they lay in bed at a hotel in tourist-packed Jackson early Friday. A third girl, youngest of the three, was not harmed.

A first degree murder charge was filed against Andrew Pixley, 21-year-old transient whose last address was in Dallas, Ore., during a brief Justice Court preliminary hearing.

Pixley, twiddling his fingers nervously, did not enter a plea and was bound over without bond for district court appearance.

Killed were Cindy McAuliffe, 8, and her sister, Debby, 12, the daughters of Circuit Judge and Mrs. Robert McAuliffe of Maywood, Ill., a Chicago suburb. Susan, 6, was in the same room with her older sisters but was not harmed, officers said.

Arrested In Room

Pixley was arrested in the girls' room a short time after their father found them dead. McAuliffe held Pixley in the room until officers arrived.

County Atty. Floyd King said Pixley had not made any statement to officers about the slayings.

Sheriff's officers said Pixley, a slightly built, swarthy complexioned man, was not wearing shoes or a shirt when he was arrested. They said there were no shoes in the hotel room and no explanation why he was barefoot. Pixley was still without shoes when taken before Justice of Peace Lee Stephenson Sr.

Jackson Policeman James Jensen said at the Justice Court hearing that a rock about 3½ inches in diameter was found in the hotel room. The older girl apparently had been struck with the rock and strangled. King said the younger girl was strangled but had no fractures to indicate a beating. Both had been raped, King added.

"Apparently one girl was killed right away, and then the other attacked," King said.

Heard Commotion

The judge, who had been attending a floor show in the downstairs lounge of the Wort Motor Hotel with his wife, Betty, 34, rushed to the girls' room about 1:15 a.m. after hearing a commotion.

He found Pixley lying on the floor and a rock nearby. The man apparently was drunk or feigning drunkenness, the judge told King.

Sheriff Carl (Bud) Roice said the slayer apparently climbed into the room from a nearby roof. The window screen had been removed.

Jackson, a resort town near Grand Teton National Park in northwest Wyoming, was jammed with tourists at the time. The McAuliffe family had been on a motoring vacation.

Pixley apparently arrived in Jackson three or four days ago, King said. A local jeweler said he had surprised a man trying to steal a blanket from the back of his automobile Thursday.

Cuming Plan Must Be Put To Residents

Cuming County must put its proposal to part with a tract of land it owns and cash for another piece of property to a vote of county residents, according to an attorney general's opinion issued Friday.

The county plans to obtain a tract worth $15,500 for a parcel of its property valued at $5,500 plus the difference in cash.

Robert D. Moodie of West Point, Cuming County attorney, has asked whether this could be considered a land swap and thus be possible without a vote.

But the opinion by Assistant Atty. Gen. C. C. Sheldon said the transaction "is a sale of real estate and the matter must be submitted to a vote."

The opinion said in effect the county will be parting with its property for $5,500.

The law requires such a vote when a sale of county property is involved.

MORRISON IS SECOND IN COOKOUT

Omaha (AP)—Govs. Harold Hughes of Iowa and Frank Morrison of Nebraska turned chefs Friday in a cookout that attracted several hundred spectators.

From a time standpoint, Gov. Hughes had his steak ready two minutes ahead of Gov. Morrison.

Said Hughes: "This is the first steak I've ever fried."

Before the two cooks got busy, Morrison looked at his steak ant remarked: "This is obviously a Nebraska steak although there may be a little Iowa corn in it."

Replied Hughes: "I'd say my steak is prime, excellent and so good it could come from either state."

Joint-Problem Groups

San Juan (AP)—Puerto Rico, the Netherlands Antilles and Trinidad-Tobago are setting up four joint committees to study mutual problem subjects: tourism, financial institutions, joint hurricane insurance and commerce-transport-communications. The projects grew out of a three man summit meeting here last month.

Police Hunting Man In Molest

A short man with round cheeks was being sought by police Friday in connection with the molest of an 18-year-old Lincoln girl at 33rd and Holdrege late Thursday night.

The girl told police she was waiting for the bus when the man approached her and tried to engage in conversation. She said she ignored him until he said, "Come back in the alley, and I'll knife you."

The girl said she ran from the man, and he didn't follow her.

She described him as a white male, 28 to 30, about five feet-six inches tall, with round cheeks and dark hair and wearing black-rimmed glasses.

FAITHFUL OWNER SURVIVES TRAIN DIVE

Lorrie J. Campbell, 9, of Belding, Mich., is recuperating with a broken collarbone and numerous cuts she suffered when she dove under a slow-moving train to rescue her two dogs. One pup was killed; she saved the other.

Viet Nam Issue If LBJ Backs Down—Goldwater

Washington (AP)—Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater said Friday night if President Johnson backs down from his stern stand on Southeast Asia, Viet Nam and foreign policy will be the major issue of the political campaign ahead.

The Arizona senator made the statement at a closed-door banquet of Republican congressional candidates, aides and their families.

Newsmen were barred but reporters standing outside the door heard Goldwater say of Johnson:

". . . If he doesn't continue what he has started to do then I can assure him that not only Viet Nam but all of his foreign policy is going to be the major issue of the campaign. . ."

Statement Confirmed

A source present at the banquet later confirmed Goldwater had made the statement.

Newsmen were able to hear only part of his remarks in a lobby outside the banquet hall, then officials of the Republican congressional Committee summoned the hotel security officer to banish them from the floor.

Goldwater said some of his political foes have accused him of being "trigger-happy."

A Republican who heard the speech said the senator declared Johnson's decision to order retaliation against North Vietnamese port facilities in the wake of attacks on U.S. destroyers has neutralized that accustion.

And the senator was heard to say:

"The Republican Party has not led this country into a war this century . . . We are the party of peace."

The nominee added Republicans do not want to play politics with the situation in South Viet Nam.

Johnson's Stand

Then he made his assertion in Southeast Asia.

Goldwater meanwhile has set public opinion pollsters to work sampling sentiment around the country to help map strategy for his race against President Johnson.

There were these other developments Friday:

—Retired Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle and former ambassador to Italy Clare Boothe Luce were named to head a National Citizens for Goldwater-Miller Committee to woo Democrats and independents. Goldwater disclosed this at the congressional conference.

—Sen. Hugh Scott and Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania joined the list of preconvention Goldwater opponents who have said they will support the nominee.

Scott had indicated as much before but he made it specific before a meeting of county GOP chairmen and drew applause when he said, "I fight hard, I die hard, and I come to life twice as hard again."

Crash Victims' Rites Saturday

Ashton—Funeral services for four members of the Edmund Bogus family of Ashton, victims of a grinding two-car collision Tuesday near York, will be held Saturday in the Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church at Choynice.

At 9:30 a.m. the mass of the angels will be offered for Richard Bogus, 5, followed at 10 a.m. by the requiem high mass for his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bogus, and his brother, Donald, 20.

It is believed that Donald was driver of the Bogus car. Passengers besides his parents and small brother were another brother, Gary, 14, and a sister, Mary Lou, 18, both still hospitalized at York.

The fifth victim of the crash was Mrs. Gladys Adams of Saginaw, Mich. Her husband, Ollie, and five children suffered injuries.

Please Pay Him for Vacation Copies, Too!

● FIRST TIME your carrier-boy calls to collect after you return from your summer vacation, please make sure that he is paid for any newspapers he saved for you while you were away, or for copies which were forwarded to your holiday address.

AS YOU KNOW, he is in business for himself, and when any customers fail to pay him promptly, the cost of their newspapers comes out of his own pocket, until he can collect for them. That's why he appreciates it so greatly when he is paid in full on his very first call. Many thanks, and welcome home!

AVAILABLE NOW
Calphos, an unacidulated mineral phosphate for larger wheat yields and heavier test weights.
Calphos will provide a sufficient amount of immediately available phosphorus plus a steady, constant supply of residual phosphorus to the plants over a period of years. Second, it is the most economical phosphate you can buy considering its quick availability to plants, the years it will last and the spreadings it will save. Third, since it attracts and holds moisture, crops grown on Calphos treated soils are the last to fire and go down in dry weather. Place your orders now—$46.10 a ton off of the car.

Are You Going To Get The Service You Deserve?

The Loomis & Hoyt Company Has Sold 158 Homes Since January 1st.

That means we are selling 3 homes every 4 days. An unequalled record in the history of Lincoln.

A large Company insures you of better, faster and more competent service. Being big isn't enough. We must work overtime to stay big. We know the responsibility this places upon us as Realtors. Using Loomis & Hoyt as either your buying or selling representative, you get:

(1) Lincoln's largest selection of exclusive listings.
(2) Lincoln's largest sales force of full time professional Real Estate Representatives.
(3) Lincoln's only telephone (nationwide) referral service.
(4) Lincoln's only fleet of air-conditioned station wagons (14).

Be sure when you buy or sell you get the service you deserve. Call Lincolnland's leading Real Estate Company . . . where you get results, not promises. Don't forget, we are selling 3 homes every 4 days. 9c

Vibrosis Attack Begins

State Agriculture Director Pearle Finigan Friday reported he has askel the University of Nebraska to take immediate steps to develop an improved method of diagnosis for the cattle disease vibrosis.

His announcement came in the wake of a request from a group of Nebraska stockgrowers and State Sen. George Gerdes that he use emergency animal industry funds to conduct this research.

Under the agreement Finigan submitted to the University Friday, the Department of Agriculture will provide a maximum of $5,000 per quarter for a maximum of a year running back from July 1 to June 30 of next year.

Finigan asked for a proposal for research in developing improved methods of diagnosis for the cattle disease. He requested the University to summarize the course it would follow in the project and the objectives sought as well as the names of other agencies involved in the project.

Finigan noted the emergency fund was created by the Unicameral about 11 years ago and that at the time it was to be used for emergencies in livestock disease control only.

Vibrosis is a venereal disease in cattle which has been spreading during the past two to three years through the herds in Nebraska, Finigan said. He said the Nebraska Stock Growers Association has confirmed that the disease is difficult to diagnose.

"The request by the state's beefgrowers for prompt action resulted in our preparing a contract for the university's approval containing business-like conditions which would provide immediate, workable results for the stockmen," Finigan stated.

11 Midwestern Governors To Confer Again

Eleven of 12 Midwestern governors are expected to attend a meeting in Washington Tuesday with House members from their states to work on the development of a Midwestern economic voting bloc in Congress.

Gene Budig, administrative assistant to Gov. Frank Morrison reported Friday that only Gov. Matthew Welsh of Indiana is not expected Morrison is chairman of the Midwestern Governors' Conference.

A similar meeting was held recently with Senators from the Midwestern states.

The purpose is to get all Congressmen and Senators behind legislation for government research projects in the Midwest.

Morrison's special assistant Jim Dunlevey, will accompany the governor to the oneday meeting.

Besides Nebraska and Indiana, the other Midwestern states are Minnesota, Kansas, Ohio, North Dakota, South Dakota, Illinois, Missouri, Wisconsin, Michigan and Iowa.

DeMOLAY NOMINATES 2 YOUTHS

Tom Siefken of Lincoln and Roger Hobbs of York were nominated for State DeMolay Counselor Friday at the State DeMolay Conclave now being held in Lincoln.

Committee meetings and work shops on DeMolay ritual and a formal evening assembly were also held Friday.

The DeMolay sweethearts, who represent each Nebraska chapter, were entertained by the Lincoln Mothers Club.

Representing the Lincoln DeMolay chapter is Sheri Gilliland from Lincoln Southeast.

Election of state officers and a state sweetheart will be held Saturday.

Planning For Museum

Cairo (AP)—Egypt is moving ahead with plans to build a museum where the turning-point battle of El Alamein was waged in World War II between British and Axis forces. The ministry of culture is seeking from Britain, Germany and Italy exhibits of weapons used on the western desert site now visited each year by thousands, with memories, from those countries.
